OF THE

North Indiana Conference, M. E. Church

FIRST DAY.

Bluffton, Indiana, Wednesday, April 6th, 1910.

The North Indiana Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, convened in its sixty-seventh session, in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in the city of Bluffton, Indiana, Bishop Earl Cranston, D. D., L. L. D., presiding.

Introductory Service—At 9:00 A. M. the introductory services were opened with Bishop Cranston in the chair, and W. W. Martin in charge, who announced the following hymn composed for the occasion by T. C. Neal:

KING OF ETERNITY.

Tune—Something for Jesus—Hymnal 349.

King of Eternity,
Our Father dear,
With gladsome songs of praise,
Gather we here,
Thou who art great and high,
Sov'reign of earth and sky,
Hear Thou our prayer and cry—
Draw very near.
King of Eternity:
Thine would we be;
Each day thy loving face
We long to see.
Help us to glory bring
To Thee, our Lord and King;
By word and life to sing
Grandly for Thee.

King of Eternity,
Keep us thine own;
Help us to live for Thee,
And Thee alone.
When hell's dark hosts assail,
Help, Lord, or we must fail;
Help, and we shall prevail;
Vict'ry be won.
King of Eternity,
Our conference bless;
All we would do for Thee,
Crown with success;
Make this a Pentecost;
Helpful to saved and lost,
Peace-crowned, or tempest-tossed,
Bless, Father, bless!

After the singing, the Rev. H. B. Diefenbach, pastor of the First Reformed Church of this city, led in prayer. The Rev. A.

Reports of District Superintendents

FORT WAYNE DISTRICT.

C. U. Wade, District Superintendent.

District Superintendent of the Fort Wayne District to the sixty-seventh session of the North Indiana Conference. After the appointments were read, one year ago, by Bishop Anderson, each preacher went gladly and hopefully to the work assigned him. There was no break in the ranks until in August, when L. M. Kemper, pastor at York, after obtaining the consent of the Bishop and charge, gave up the work to attend school at DePauw University. J. M. Barnes, a local preacher of the district was appointed as supply to fill out the year. In the same month O. A. Bowman the supply at Geneva Circuit, surrendered the charge, and Joshua Jarvis, a local preacher, who had done good service elsewhere, was secured for the place. He has done well; had good revivals, and the charge desires his return at an advance of $100 in salary for the coming year.

In August, C. M. Hobbs surrendered his charge at St. Paul, Fort Wayne, with the consent of the bishop, and later was appointed to Dublin and Lewisville in the Richmond District. C. W. Jeffras, a local Elder, was found for St. Paul. He has had a great revival with 120 conversions. He is asked to return with $200 advance in salary. He has been recommended for admission on trial into the Conference.

Young People's Societies.

We have ninety-three Sunday schools with an enrollment of 1,763 officers and teachers, and 14,257 scholars, a gain of 1,720, during the year. The officers and teachers are faithful in teaching the Word of God, and earnest and successful in their efforts in leading the scholars to faith in Jesus Christ as a personal Savior.

We have fifty chapters of the Senior and twenty-four Junior Epworth Leagues, with a total enrollment of 3,961. Several new chapters have been organized during the year. Our Epworthians are actively engaged in furthering the interests of the Master's kingdom at home and abroad. The leagues gave $1,300 toward the support of Rev. D. O. Ernsberger, a missionary who went from this Conference to India.

Many of the young people in the Sunday Schools and Leagues were converted during the revivals of the fall and winter, and have come into membership in the church.

Nearly all of our Sunday Schools are organized into Missionary Societies; and our own literature and publications are used in the schools.

Brotherhoods.

We have nine Methodist Brotherhoods in the District. Some of them are doing excellently and some not so well. The Brotherhood in plans and purpose and aim is one of the most promising and useful organizations in Methodism; but it must be studied by pastors and laymen, and the work intelligently and aggressively carried forward so that all our brethren may be enlisted "in men's work for men." May God give us vision, courage and wisdom to enter here into "fields white to the harvest!"

Ladies' Societies.

We have fifteen Woman's Foreign and nine Woman's Home Missionary Auxiliaries, and with seventeen Young Woman's and Children's Societies affiliating and connected with them. About $4,000 has been obtained by these godly women to help win the world for Christ.

We have seventy-six Ladies' Aid Societies and they have raised $6,700 for the use of the churches in the district, and by legitimate and approved christian methods. They attend our Sunday Schools, Class and Prayer meetings, and public services. May their numbers be multiplied in all our charges!

District Meetings.

Our District Epworth League Convention was held in First Church, Fort Wayne, in June. More than 400 Epworthians attended this annual gathering, and enthusiasm was at high tide. The next Convention will be held in Angola, where hundreds of students attend the Tri-State Normal college.

On September 28 and 29, a two days' Missionary Convention was held in the First Church, Fort Wayne, attended by all the pastors of the district and many laymen. Strong, vigorous and eloquent addresses were delivered as follows:

"In What Countries Is Christianity Winning Its Greatest Victories?" By W. W. Martin.

"The Opportunity, Responsibility and Duty of This Generation for the Evangelization of the World," by G. H. Myers.

"The Black Peril; Christian Schools and Churches the Solution of the Problem," by J. K. Cecil.

"Missions in the Light of Prophecy and History," by W. B. Freeland.

"The True Basis of Obligation to the Superannuate," by J. B. Cook.

"America as Field for Missionary Enterprise," by M. S. Marble.

"The Basis of Our Hope of Winning the Orient for Christ," by C. Claud Travis.

"The Shaking of the Nations," by L. M. Edwards.

"The Privilege and Duty of Using Money in God's Work and the Marvelous Returns He Gives," by Sherman Powell.

The following week, a one-day Missionary Convention was held in each charge in the district. The thirty-seven charges were divided into seven divisions, and five or more preachers attended each convention, and addressed the people. The efforts helped to arouse our people, and assisted the pastors in securing larger offerings for our great connectional interests.

Our District Conference was held March 7, 8, and 9 in Simpson Church, Fort Wayne. Two hundred and twelve preachers and delegates were present, and the usual business of a District Conference was attended to. Josiah J. Bryant and John W. Metts and Edwin Dickson were recommended for local deacons' orders.

Joshua Jarvis, Emory Dunbar, ordained ministers, having been received into our church from other Evangelical Churches, the District Conference recommended that their Orders as Local Deacons be recognized.

C. W. Jeffras, Leroy V. Simms and Emory Dunbar were recommended for admission on trial into this Conference.

Rev. C. B. Wilcox, formerly a member of this Conference, but who located last session at his own request, surrendered his parchments, and withdrew from the Church and Ministry under complaints, in writing.

His parchments are in the hands of the Secretary of this Conference.

Building and Improvements.

The new church building at Woodburn, was dedicated by the District Superintendent on January 10, and all its cost amply provided for. It is a good structure, with basement, furnace, electric lights, cathedral glass windows, prayer meeting room, and all modern improvements. This church has long been needed, and the pastor, Emory Dunbar, has wrought hard and well in its building. It is the only English speaking church in the township. The Missionary and Church Extension Society made it possible to build this church by a donation of $250. The charge is so well pleased with Brother Dunbar, that they ask for his return at an advance of $100 in salary.

At Fremont, the brick church was declared to be unsafe by experts called by the town council, and its use prohibited. It was at once torn down, and a fine frame church has been erected in its stead. It has a good basement and several class rooms opening with folding doors into the main auditorium, bowl shaped floor, circular pews, and all late improvements. C. B. Dougherty has been indefatigable in his efforts in carrying forward this enterprise, and his people ask for his return.

At Oak Grove, Decatur Circuit, the trustees had commenced last fall the repair of their church, by putting in a furnace and a general rebuilding when the building caught fire in the night and burned to the ground. Nine hundred and fifty dollars insurance was paid them and they at once raised $3,200 additional for a new church building. A brick edifice, with modern equipment is being erected this spring at that good country appointment. It will cost $4,500. C. B. Sweeney, pastor.

An additional room has been added to our church at Portland for a Young Ladies' class from the Sunday School. The class numbers 126. The room with its elegant furnishings cost $3,000. $350 improvements to the parsonage at Portland. L. M. Edwards, pastor. His salary was raised to $1,500 and parsonage for this year, and he is promised an advance for next year and his return asked for.

Three thousand eight hundred and twenty-five dollars have been expended in general repairs of our church in Decatur and the pastor, Sherman Powell, is asked to return by unanimous vote of his Quarterly Conference.

Washington Church, Decatur Circuit, was rebuilt at a cost of $1,500 and reopened and dedicated by the District Superintendent in May. The money necessary for paying all for its building was raised, and more at the dedication.

At North Otsego, York charge, we had a brick church that had been condemned and abandoned years ago, and our people were worshipping in a school house. An effort was being made by another denomination to tear down the old brick edifice and use the material toward the erection of a new union church building. This stirred up Brother Joseph Anderson, a member of our church there, who said: "We will not allow this." Methodism shall stay at North Otsego. He appealed to the friends of the church, and the result was, that he raised enough money to put the church in splendid repair. He superintended the rebuilding and directed in all the work, and paid all the bills. We now have as fine a country church there as you can find in Steuben county. $700 was used in this improvement.

At Cedarville, Huntertown charge, the church has been repaired and basement put under the entire building, at an expenditure of $1,020. E. A. Bunner, pastor.

Improvements on churches in Bluffton Circuit, $800; $514, Bluffton; $475, Monroeville; $450, Hamilton, and less sums from $100 to $400 in ten other charges.

Debts Paid.

At Montpelier our people were burdened by a debt of $10,000. The pastor by working day and night, has finally secured subscription, notes and cash to cover it. He has collected and paid $3,000 of the debt this year. His church wants him to stay and finish the job.

Two thousand eight hundred dollars has been paid on the debt for the site of the new church to be erected for Simpson, Fort Wayne. Richard C. Jones, pastor. $1,189 on debt, Trinity, Fort Wayne, W. P. Herron, pastor. $522, Poneto; $500, Geneva; $400, Portland; $375, First Church, Fort Wayne; $300, Auburn, and smaller sums in several other charges—$10,375 in all.

Salaries.

Our District paid last year more for Ministerial support than any other in the Conference, and this year we have an increase of $1,740.

We raised last year for the wornout preachers and paid to them $1,-895. This year we will give them $2,214, the apportionment in full.

Benevolences.

All our regular Benevolences will be in advance of last year, as given me by the reports of the pastors, revised to date. We will have for Missions, $10,502. A gain over last year of $1,682.

A gain for Freedman's Aid Society of $334.

Conference Claimants a gain of $316.

DePauw, Sustentation and other benevolences share in the gains of the year. Old Peoples' Home, $2,209; Hospital, $650.

Bluffton leads in the offering for the parent Missionary Society with $1,206 and will stand first in the conference for amount given by regular subscriptions.

Portland gives $1,050 for missions and nearly every charge has made good gains. We are on the $2,570,000 line for Missions.

Revivals.

Good revivals were held at every appointment and in every charge in the district. Our pastors have an intense love for those for whom Jesus Christ died. They believe in the power of the Holy Spirit to convict men of sin, and to lead them to Godly repentance. Our pastors were not afraid to tell men that unless they repented of their sins, they would be lost. That there was Heaven to gain and a hell to shun. They cried out: "Ye must be born again," and that when they were born again the Holy Spirit would witness that fact to them, and that they should know it for themselves.

1,603 persons were converted and many believers were greatly built up in Christian life. Bluffton reported the greatest Missionary collection and she reports the largest number of conversions. One hundred and seventy persons found the Lord during the special services held by the pastor. He was his own evangelist. St. Paul, Fort Wayne, had 120 conversions; Spencerville, 108; Bluffton Circuit, 103; Decatur, 93; Poneto, 78; Portland, 70; Montpelier and Leo, 65 each; Garrett and Hamilton, 60 each; Monroeville, 55; Decatur Circuit, and First Church, Fort Wayne, 50 each. Hamilton, 42; Woodburn, 40; Orland, 38; Geneva Circuit, 35; Simpson, 32; Fremont, 30; Auburn and Pennville, 22 each; York and Coesse, 20 each; Bobo, 19; Hudson, 17; Harlan and Trinity, 15 each, and from fourteen down to ten at Hoagland, Monroe, Wayne street, Angola.

We have 1,069 members on probation, and 11,791 in full membership. This is a net gain of 717 full members during the year.

Six years ago the district lines were changed a little, and four charges on the north end were given to Goshen District. Butler, Butler Circuit, Corunna and Waterloo, while Portland, Pennville and Montpelier were added on the south. With these changes we had 9,018 full members. Now we have 11,791, a net gain of 2,773.

We then had 9,519 Sunday School scholars enrolled; now 14,257. We paid then for Conference Claimants, $1,095; now $2,214. We then paid for Missions and Church Extension, $5,301; now $10,605. We then paid our pastors cash for salaries, $26,280, now, $35,211, a gain of $220 for each pastor in the district. We then had $408,740 in church and parsonage property; now $626,100.

During these years we purchased several abandoned churches from other denominations, and have organized good strong Methodist classes in them. One was a Presbyterian church, and attached it to Bluffton Circuit; one a United Brethren church, now in Geneva Circuit; one a Union church in Decatur circuit. Got back a Methodist Church at Oakland that years ago had been turned over to another denomination and negotiations are now in progress for another church at Mt. Hope where we have organized a class this winter, and attached it to Bobo circuit. The work is as aggressive and successful in the twenty-one circuits in the district as in the stations. Our country congregations and churches are growing. We have 5,257 full members in these circuits, and 871 of the conversions of the winter were in these country charges. Our Sunday Schools there are vigorous and aggressive. 7,791 of the 14,251 scholars in the district are in the schools of the circuits. I know how arduous are the duties of the pastor in the city church; how he must preach twice to the same congregation each Sabbath; prepare for and lead the mid-week services; respond to calls for outside functions too numerous to mention; further civic reform and assist in all philanthropic and charitable effort and enterprises, fulfill social obligations, until he often wears himself out and drops in the meridian of his power and usefulness. Yet the tasks laid on him are not more excessive, nor his life more strenuous than that of the pastor in the country, who does his duty by his charge; who preaches three times each Sabbath to congregations widely separated; who visits the sick all over the circuit, and buries the dead in all the surrounding country; who responds to every call whether the weather be hot or the temperature be below zero; who goes in the teeth of storm and blizzard to his work day by day.

Bishop, there is no decrepitude or failure in our churches in the country, or towns or cities in the district. Our ministers are active, strong and devoted to their work. Their theology is not antiquated or discredited. They preach to growing congregations of the most intelligent and cultured people. The Sunday services and prayer meetings are well attended by men as well as women. In several love feasts, and prayer meetings and Sunday services I have counted, and there were more men than women. In all lines of Christian effort, greater zeal and interest upon the part of the laymen in the district has been noticeable year by year.

In closing this, my last report as District Superintendent for Fort Wayne District, I desire to record my thanks to Almighty God for His blessing and help all through the six years of toil and effort. I have been associated during these years with preachers as faithful and true as can be found in all Methodism. They have not grudgingly given me their support, but cheerfully, gladly and promptly they have responded to every appeal, as we have toiled together for the upbuilding of the Church, and the extension of Christ's kingdom among men. Our efforts have been seconded, and we have been encouraged and supported by a consecrated laity, always ready to actively co-operate in every call for aggressive work for our King and Lord.

We have not been content to look upon our losses, deprivations and hardships. We have not fixed our eyes upon the discouragements and hinderances that oft confronted us, but have turned our eyes away, and looked "to the hills from whence cometh help," and trusting in the Lord God Omnipotent, who is able to do for us exceeding abundantly above all we can ask and think, have steadily gone forward to sure and certain victory.

I have tried to do my utmost for every charge, and for each preacher in my district through all these years. No day has been too hot or cold or stormy for me. No work so severe and heavy but that with Christ's help and in His Name we have attempted it. We have asked no pastor to be more active and devoted to his work; nor have we asked him to give to his charge more of time and consecrated effort than we have tried to give, and have given to the work assigned to us. We have expected every preacher; have urged every preacher to do his very utmost for the church we love, and for Him we serve. God bless you, brethren! You have done well.

God bless you, and all others like you in the other five districts in this great Conference.

GOSHEN DISTRICT

Somerville Light, District Superintendent

Bishop Cranston and Brethren:

The conference year is past; its battles have been fought, its victories won, its defeats sustained, and I now stand with my faithful brothers of the Goshen District, to give a brief account of our stewardship.

Without further introductory word, I take up the items in their usual order.

The pastors appointed by Bishop Anderson to the fields of labor in this district went promptly to the work assigned, and have toiled faithfully throughout the year. Only one charge was left to be supplied, viz: Butler Circuit; W. B. Burk was secured for this difficult and trying field and by earnest, consecrated work, has demonstrated that real heroism in the ministry is not a thing of the far gone past. Brother Burk will return to college, leaving the charge in the best condition it has been for years. Only one break occurred in the ranks during the year. In October, Brother A. J. Holderman, of Middlebury, transferred to the Detroit Conference and was stationed at Clio. Brother J. W. Bowen was taken from the North Webster charge and stationed at Middlebury, where he is in high favor with the people and is doing a great work.

Brother W. T. Daly, of Elkhart, an earnest, consecrated man, whose heart and mind are both alive, was taken from his work as a teacher in the public schools and assigned to North Webster. It was evident from the first Sabbath that he was the man for the place. The work moved forward without interruption, with great revivals at both appointments, and benevolences were more than doubled. The people ask his return with an assurance of a substantial advance in salary.

No serious sickness has come nigh the dwellings of the pastors of this district, and death has not visited these parsonage homes.

We have a glorious company of brethren in this district not in pastoral relation to the work, fourteen superannuates, two conference Evangelists, and one who is Endowment Secretary of the American University. I have found them all kind, sympathetic and helpful.

On Sunday night, March 13, Brother J. B. Alleman passed to the Church Triumphant. He was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost and of faith, and during his fruitful ministry many were brought to the Christ. The funeral services, attended by a goodly number of the brethren, were held March 16th in First Church, Warsaw. Tender and comforting messages were spoken by Brother Sherman Powell, of Decatur, and Brother A. G. Neal, of Warsaw. The body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery, hard by the city which had been Brother Alleman's home during the eight years of his superannuation. Four exceedingly interesting little tots, babies dear, have come to stay in three of the parsonages of this district during this year. One, a son, hale and hearty, Theodore Hale, assigned to the Nappanee parsonage home, occupied by B. Earle Parker and his happy, helpful young wife.

A second, a sweet baby girl, Lenore Josephine, is snugly at home in the parsonage at Wakarusa with Chas. DeBow and the proud wife and mother.

A third, Carolyn Ruth, and a fourth, Rosalyn Esther, twin sisters dear, would not be separated and are therefore together in the good parsonage home at Pierceton, William R. Wones and Dora L., his wife, in charge.

Tell me not, ye wise ones of the laity, that it is absolutely necessary that your pastor, in order that he may attract the children, be a young man. The case before us stands two to one in favor of the man thirty-four years in the ministry.

On Sunday morning, February 6, the District Superintendent had the pleasure of baptizing the twins, whose devoted parents dedicated them to the church for any service to which the Great Head might call them. Good friends contributed the necessary amount and they have been made life members of the Home Missionary Society.

Buildings and Improvements

|---|-----------|
| Albion—J. S. Newcombe, pastor, has made improvements to the amount of | $ 100.00 |
| Butler—E. F. Albertson, pastor | 350.00 |
| Butler Circuit—W. B. Burk, pastor | 130.00 |
| First Church, Goshen—M. J. Magor, pastor | 320.00 |

| Lima—J. M. B. Reeves, pastor | 593.00 |
| LaGrange—J. C. Murray, pastor | 1,398.00 |

This improvement, including as it does, fresco work, releading of windows, painting and refinishing within and without, carpeting throughout with rich velvet carpet, makes the LaGrange church building one of the most attractive in the Goshen District.

|-----------------------------------|-----------|
| Milford—A. W. Griggs, pastor..... | $ 603.00 |
|-----------------------------------|-----------|

This is a distinct triumph for the struggling congregation at Milford, giving them the neatest auditorium in the town. The District Superintendent had the pleasure of being present and preaching the re-opening sermon, February 13.

| Trinity, Elkhart—J. A. Beatty, pastor | 607.00 |
| Willow Creek—B. H. Beall, pastor | 75.00 |

The good and plucky people of St. Paul church, Elkhart, led on by J. W. Walters, the efficient pastor, have sold the old church and parsonage property, purchased a beautiful and commanding site on Beardsley Avenue, one of the most attractive streets of the city, in one of the most popular residence sections, and are now erecting a church and parsonage at an estimated cost of $25,000. Pastor and people hope to have all in readiness for dedication at or near Thanksgiving time. This thrifty young church at the fourth Quarterly Conference invited the pastor to return with the assurance of an advance of $300 in salary, and is certainly destined to become one of the most desirable in Goshen District.

When invited to hold a session of the North Indiana Conference in this new church, do not fail to accept the invitation.

The people of the Middlebury charge, under the inspiring leadership of Rev. J. W. Bowen, have at last concluded to build the much needed new parsonage. This tactful pastor now has more than $2,000 in hand and the work is going forward.

The old dilapidated church at Cromwell, on the Wawaka charge, Rev. H. Lacy, pastor, is to be replaced by a fine, modern church building in keeping with the needs of the people of that progressive little city. A good subscription is in hand and the work will soon be under way.

New Work

Last July a mission Sunday School was organized in Allendale, in Elkhart, a section of the city which is rapidly filling up with a very desirable class of citizens. The school has prospered from the beginning, and now in addition to the Sunday School services, a preaching service is conducted every Sunday night. Rev. J. A. Beatty, pastor of Trinity Church, is entitled to great praise for his activity in launching and directing this new enterprise.

Rev. A. A. Turner, of Bashor charge, removed to that section of the city in order that he might assist in this work, and has been very faithful and helpful. This important work is to be placed in charge of a pastor the coming year and its development pushed with a view to building a church.

The Holbrook Mission, near Warsaw, a new work undertaken by Brother J. B. Alleman, has reached the point where a class should be organized, and a church building erected. At the Fourth Quarterly Conference of First Church, Warsaw, the work was placed in care of Rev. A. G. Neal, the pastor, and will be carefully looked after.

I thank God for busy pastors, who are looking for new, white fields, ready for the harvest, and are not afraid of an additional appointment. The undue anxiety about station work on the part of so many preachers and the almost insane exodus from the farms on the part of so many of the laity unite in giving us the problem of "the country church." The great Methodist Episcopal Church cannot afford this and therefore should heartily join in the present day cry of "Back to the land."

Robust Methodism can stand more of a campaign in the rural districts in the behalf of charges with robust support and robust men to lead the hosts forward. Goshen District greatly needs such a campaign; however, before such a movement can amount to very much our good people of the rural districts must forget that Methodism ever knew such a word as quarterage and call to mind the fact that we are in the days of big enterprises calling for big men, big plants and big money. One hundred dollar land, 10 cent hogs, 25 to 35 cent butter, 16 to 36 cent eggs, $15 hay, $1.20 wheat and 65 to 75 cent corn all indicate quite clearly that Providence has opened the way.

Salaries

Several of the charges of the district, appreciating the fact that the cost of living has been greatly increased, cheerfully advanced their pastors' salaries and others which have been careless about paying in full have met their promises.

The advance reports to me indicate that the cash receipts of the pastors this year will be $1,532 in advance of last year. Only two or three deficits are reported and it is hoped that the final reports will show these claims met in full.

Debts Paid

|-------------------------|-----------|
| St. Paul, Elkhart | $ 500.00 |
| Etna Green | 300.00 |
| St. Marks, Goshen | 600.00 |

| Syracuse | 800.00 |
| Wakarusa | 350.00 |
| Warsaw | 275.00 |
| Avilla | 35.00 |

Total$4,815.00

The present indebtedness on our church properties, worth nearly $500,000, is $7,287, and a large per cent. of this is covered with good subscriptions.

Support of Conference Claimants

I rejoice that our worthy Superannuates are rapidly coming to the place they ought to occupy in the ranks of the ministry of our glorious church. The new law, I think, will work wonders as the years go by. Let our pastors stand for fair play and all will be well. In my judgment the pastors should look after this matter themselves (as the Discipline provides) and not trust to thoughtless, careless committees. In this connection I am glad to report an advance. Last year the district raised $1,508. This year $1,804.

The Episcopal Fund has not only held its own, but made a small gain over last year. The reports made to me a few days ago showed that we were within about $5 of our full apportionment.

Settlement Day

All of these salaries have been greatly helped by Settlement Day, which was fixed for December 6. On the 7th of December a meeting of the pastors was held at New Paris. Thirty-six of the forty men were present and the reports were most encouraging.

Tithing Bands

During the month from October 15 to November 15, Rev. F. P. Sigler, Tithe Covenant Evangelist, visited nineteen charges of the district and succeeded in organizing twenty bands. Every dollar of his expenses was paid by charges visited and nearly all of the bands are doing good work. I make special mention of the band in St. Paul Church, Elkhart. During the four months of its organization, this faithful little band of tithers has paid into the church treasury $138. What a day that will be for Methodism when the rank and file of the membership tithe their income.

Departmental Work

We have 78 Sunday Schools, with an enrollment of 8,950. The enrollment in the Sunday Schools should far exceed the membership of the churches. O, what a church we could be if we could get the present membership of the churches into the Sunday School, and the boys and girls and young men and young women of the Sunday School into the preaching services of the Church.

We have 47 senior chapters of the Epworth League, with an enrollment of 1,906, and 20 junior chapters with 876 members. A small gain over last year. A good convention was held in June at Wakarusa. The attendance was good, the reports were inspiring and the program excellent. Dr. McCartney, the District Missionary, was present and delivered several stirring addresses.

The chapters subscribed between $1,200 and $1,300 for his support. The league also raised $250 for the African Diamond Jubilee fund. In September, seven sub-district League Conventions were held with great profit. Not a few chapters were revived and seven new chapters organized. Rev. B. E. Parker, the district president, has pushed the work faithfully.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society Auxiliaries of the district number seventeen. They raised this year $2,566. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society Auxiliaries number fourteen, and raised $2,349. In both cases a gain over last year. These societies are earnest in the work, bringing to the people missionary information. No pastor can afford to be without one or both on his charge.

The fifty-seven Ladies' Aid Societies in the district have raised $9,456 this year for the support of the various enterprises. In many charges of the district these societies contribute liberally toward the support of the pastor. The pastor who does not cultivate the acquaintance of, and assist and encourage the Ladies' Aid Society of his charge makes a great mistake.

The Methodist Brotherhood Movement is just beginning to take a hold upon this district. The brethren have reported six chapters with a membership of about 380. Some of these chapters have done a great work in lining up the men for battle for Social and Moral Reform. Some marked victories have been scored. Others have joined with the pastor for forward work along the line of Evangelism and have won many to the Christ. This is an organization in behalf of "The King's Business," as related to men, and must, if it succeeds, be worked with this thought in mind.

Revivals

Nearly all of the pastors report having conducted special services at some time during the fall and winter. In all, about 1,086 conversions and reclamations have been reported to me. At Pierceton a sweeping revival resulted in the professed conversion of about 150; North Webster, 74; Warsaw, 70; Waterloo, 50; Trinity, Elkhart, 43; Inwood and Kendallville, 40 each; Corunna, 36; Middlebury, 38; Etna Green, 30; Butler, 27; Bourbon, 25; Wolcottville, 26; First Church, Goshen, 20; Wawaka, 24; Osceola, 25; LaGrange, 16; St. Marks, Goshen, 12; Warsaw Circuit, 12, Leesburg, 9. In the other charges, as reported, many were revived and greatly strengthened in their purposes to be loyal to the Church and the Christ.

Benevolences

Thirty-eight of the forty charges in this district report a gain over last year. Only one, as I now recall, reports less than last year. The following charges report all benevolences paid in full: Warsaw, $350 above the apportionment and $750 above last year; Osceola, Topeka, nearly $100 gain over last year; Nappanee, $154 above apportionment; Mishawaka, $236.98 beyond last year; Leesburg, double the amount paid last year; First Church, Goshen, $400 gain over last year; St. Paul, Elkhart, 100 per cent. gain; Butler, $100 above last year; Trinity, Elkhart, a splendid advance over last year, $250. Others not able to report in full have made great gains. Permit me to make special mention of a few charges in this list: Bristol, M. R. Pierce, pastor, $228 last year, $262 this year; Elkhart Circuit, R. C. Turner, pastor, more than double the amount given last year; Ligonier, C. E. White, pastor, $37 more than last year; Syracuse, A. L. Weaver, pastor, $29 more than last year; Wolcottville and Rome City, W. M. Hollopeter, pastor, $240 more than last year, and a special gift of $2,500 for the Home for the Aged; Albion, $371, $70 above last year; Pierceton, W. R. Wones, pastor, last year $126, this year $243; New Paris, G. W. Bailor, pastor, last year $331, this year $454; North Webster, W. T. Daly, pastor, last year $91, this year $194; Middlebury, J. W. Bowen, pastor, last year $184, this year $298; LaGrange, J. C. Murray, pastor, last year $486, this year $699; Inwood, A. Singer, pastor, last year $56, this year $109; St. Marks, Goshen, J. C. Woodruff, pastor, last year $28, this year $163; Etna Green, Preston Polhemus, pastor, last year $29, this year $180. Because of this loyal, earnest, successful support, in spite of the carelessness of some who did not take their apportionments seriously, I am now able to report a gain of $1,439 for missions, and a grand total gain for all benevolences of $7,294. As this general statement indicates, we will have a gain all along the line, DePauw University, Freedman's Aid, Children's Day Fund, Board of Sunday Schools, Sustentation, Indiana Methodist Hospital, Home for the Aged—for this worthy enterprise one of our elect ladies on the Wolcottville charge gave $2,500 in cash. This gift, with the collections from the churches, will give the district close to front rank place among the districts of the Conference.

Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, and Sustentation Fund is far beyond former years. Whenever a loyal, consecrated and well informed laity can be drawn up in line with a devoted and broad-visioned ministry, the battle will be fought and the victory won. Inspiring signs of progress are to be seen on all sides in these glorious days of far-reaching laymen's movements. We are going in the right direction.

The average per member for all purposes, including reform movements, ranges from $4.89 to $26.90. I mention a few of these averages in particular for information and encouragement: Bristol, $7; Inwood, $7.60; New Paris, $7.70; Kendallville and Trinity, Elkhart, $8; North Webster, $8.50; Nappanee, $8.83; Waterloo, $9.50; Ligonier, $9.85; Etna Green, $9.90; Goshen, First Church, $10.64; Albion, Topeka and Mishawaka, $11; Goshen, St. Marks, $12.30; Syracuse, $13; Butler, $13.60; Osceola, $14.08; Wakarusa, $16.20; Wolcottville and Rome City, $16.66; Milford, $17.80; St. Paul, Elkhart, $26.90.

District Conference

Our District Conference was held at Nappanee in March. The attendance was large, the enthusiasm was marked, the program was of a high order; indeed, pastors and laymen alike regarded this session as up to Annual Conference standard. Rev. B. E. Parker and his loyal people are entitled to great credit for the splendid entertainment accorded the Conference and their liberal financial support of the work. All expenses were paid by the local church.

The pastors of this district have been busy men throughout the year. They appreciate the fact that the Methodist Ministry is no place for a weakling or a loafer. They are keen of eye, they see the hand writing on the wall, against the preacher who lies down on his job. They understand that the man who could not make good with a modern business corporation cannot last long in the Methodist ministry. These good men have been loyal to all district meetings, have assisted the superintendent in the development of a District Spirit, have assisted in an effort to make much of the Quarterly Meeting occasion, have been very considerate with reference to the comfort of the Superintendent when visiting their charges and trying to assist them in their work, have striven to make him acquainted with their people and help him to good favor with them. I note in this connection that in addition to all other work, these brethren have made 26,329 pastoral calls, an average of 658 per pastor.

These visits range in number from 75 to more than 2,000. I cannot find words with which to express my thanks to pastors, wives and children for their very kind treatment during the year. Heaven's richest blessings be upon them all! Bishop, the year to me has been one of many new experiences. My heart has been humming almost by night and by day, the tune of the hymn sung throughout the church, "O, What a Change." The burdens have been heavy, the anxiety great, but in the midst of the toils and cares I have realized the presence of the Great Head of the Church, and give Him the glory for whatever of good may have come to the work through my prayerful efforts. I have done my best. The records are with Him.

LOGANSFORT DISTRICT.

Cassius Clay Cissell, District Superintendent.

Bishop Crauston, Fathers and Brethren:—It is with great pleasure, I submit my second annual report of the Logansport District. We are assembled here after another year of service and consecration, and we have come with expectant hearts to greet each other and compare notes of the year's victories. We are glad that we are able to say with the Apostle, "We know whom we have believed, and are persuaded that he is able to keep that which we have committed to him against that day." We are here to plan for the future, and to encourage each other in this most important work committed to us by our Lord and His Church. Our work is spiritual, and we are especially called to it. If we closely follow our Guide and do not allow ease, honor, or any earthly consideration to enter into our plans we are sure of success. Our business is to preach the Gospel and save men. And to this end the thirty-eight pastors have been using their energies, as their reports will show. All the men appointed by Bishop Anderson, to this district last year, remained at their post of duty with the exception of two. We made, perhaps, our best and greatest contribution of the year in giving to the Foreign Missionary field our Brother Cottingham. He answered the call, and has gone forth to do his Master's work in the Philippines. H. L. Liddle was secured to take the place vacated by him and has completely won his way into the hearts of the people of Boxley charge. A. D. Alexander after two months of service at Roann decided to retire from the active ministry and J. J. Fischer was secured to take his place. Brother Fischer comes to us by transfer from the North West Indiana Conference. We are grateful to our Heavenly Father that during the year death has not entered any of our parsonage homes. The only shadows that have fallen upon our pathway this year, were in the removal of two of our greatly beloved Superannuated brethren, J. H. Jackson and J. H. Slack, at Kokomo, Indiana. They answered to their names when the summons came, and are now on our "Honor Roll" among our sainted dead.

Our district meetings have been of great value this year, both spiritually and intellectually. The Epworth League Convention held at Forest, in June, was well attended and the enthusiasm was pronounced from the first session to the close. The entire program was excellent and the enthusiasm intense. After the splendid address of Dr. Swadener on "The Needs of Africa," it was suggested that a collection be taken for the African Jubilee Fund and $600.00 was subscribed within a few minutes. The District Lyceum was held at Walton and was attended by all the pastors with the exception of two. The laymen attended largely and deep spiritual fervor marked all the sessions, and the revival fires burned upon the altar, and precious souls were saved. During the Holidays we held a Missionary Convention at Logansport. The sessions were held in our beautiful Broadway church, but all the churches assisted in entertaining the delegates. It was largely attended, and the addresses of Dr. J. C. Floyd and Dr. E. B. Richards of Africa and other returned Missionaries with our local talent made it one of the most interesting Missionary Conventions ever held in the district. And Bishop, this Convention made it possible for us to make the splendid increase in our offerings to Missions this year. We have held a number of sub-district meetings, for mutual improvement, and to discuss methods and plans of work for the advancement of the district. These meetings contributed in deepening the spiritual life of the pastors and making them more efficient workers in the vineyard, and were very profitable indeed.

Church Buildings and Improvements.

This year has been marked by splendid advance in the building and improving of churches and parsonages. Five churches have either been remodeled or built and as many parsonages have been erected to shelter our ministers. There is now but one charge in our district that has no parsonage, and that is a new one that was made last year. Richard Chapel on the Amboy charge, under the direction of the pastor, C. A. Luse, has remodeled their church at an expense of $2,200.00, making it one of the neatest country churches in the district. Nevada on the Center charge, inspired by their faithful pastor, LeRoy Myers, built a cement block church costing $5,700.00. It is a model of beauty and convenience and reflects great credit upon both pastor and people. These churches were dedicated by the District Superintendent free of debt. Bennett's Switch, on the Bunker Hill charge, purchased a church that formerly belonged to the United Brethren church, paying $1,200.00 for it and beautified it and dedicated it free of debt, Rev. Dr. T. J. Johnson, secretary of our Preacher's Aid Society, having charge. A. E. Sarah, pastor, deserves much praise for securing this valuable property to our district. Markland avenue, Kokomo, has been steadily advancing in the building of their $35,000.00 church, having it now enclosed, and will have it ready for dedication in the early fall. The pastor, J. A. Sprague, has been tactful, resourceful and uniring in his efforts to make this enterprise a success. The corner stone was laid by Bishop David H. Moore, in October, when $10,000.00 was raised to assist in the work, which sum has been increased by the pastor by private solicitation to $12,000.00. Andrew Carnegie has promised one-half the price of a new pipe organ, and when the church is dedicated it will have one of the best organs in the Conference. Kempton has reconstructed their church at a cost of about $1,600.00 and when complete will make a fine auditorium with two class rooms. Brother Fisher, the pastor, led in the work, and much credit for its success is due to him. Salem class on the Walton charge is building a brick church which, when complete, will cost about $9,000.00. This is the third splendid church this pastor has built on the Walton charge within the past five years, adding $21,000.00 in church property to the Conference. Brother Amos is sad in heart that there are no more churches to build at Walton. Atlanta built a parsonage at the cost of about $1,900.00, and Hillisburg, one costing $1,200.00. Greentown puts a new parsonage at the disposal of Brother Hall for another year costing $2,500.00 with all the modern improvements. Twelve Mile built one costing about $1,300.00, and Sheridan, a modern house costing $3,500.00 and is one of the best in the Conference.

Church Debts and Benevolences.

I wish to call attention to a fact that has perhaps not been noticed by the brethren. The indebtedness of the North Indiana Conference on their church property is a little more than $167,000.00, and nearly one-half of this is on the Logansport District. This has in no small degree interfered with our canvass for the benevolences. Broadway, Logansport, has a debt of $24,000.00 and outside the pledge made by the Ladies' Aid Society have only $2,000.00 in collectable subscriptions. Market street, Logansport, has a $12,000.00 debt, with only a few hundred dollars available with which to pay. Elwood is in the same situation with $16,000.00, and practically nothing in sight to meet their obligations, but willing hands and steady hearts. While Markland avenue, Kokomo, is laboring under a new church enterprise, and will in all probability have a church debt to wrestle with approximating $15,000.00. And in addition, the membership of the Grace Church of Kokomo, have subscribed $900.00 to the new Main street Church, and $16,429.00 to the Y. M. C. A. in process of erection. This, Bishop and Brethren, will give you some idea of the disadvantage we have been laboring under in getting our benevolences. Yet in face of these facts, we have advanced our Missionary offerings over last year, $2,431.00 and have increased the other Disciplinary Benevolences $1,311.00, making a total increase for the year of $3,742.00. Notwithstanding the splendid work done for the Benevolences our church debt will be decreased to some extent. Elwood pays $2,000.00 and interest amounting to nearly $3,000.00, and Market street, Logansport, $1,200.00 and interest amounting to nearly $2,000.00. Besides these, there have been smaller amounts paid. Bishop, this splendid record has been made by these faithful pastors and willing laymen. These preachers have seen the last man, and have gotten the last dollar. Many of our charges report all collections in full and some of the charges for the first time in their history. The following charges report an increase over last year. Akron, Alto, Atlanta, Boxley, Cicero and Arcadia, Converse, Denver, Frankton, Galveston, Greentown, Hillisburg, Hobbs, Kempton, Kokomo Grace, Markland avenue and North street, Logansport, Broadway, Market street and Wheatland avenue, Macy, New Waverly, Peru, Roann, Russiaville, Santa Fe, Sheridan, Tipton, Twelve Mile, Walton and Windfall. Only eight charges did not report an increase over last year. The pastors of the district have been uniformly earnest and faithful in the fulfillment of their obligations to the churches and their Master. They are human, and, from the very nature of their calling, are more sensitive, and perhaps more susceptible to certain influences, than men who labor in other professions. They should court kindly suggestion, but must not be cowed by harsh and cruel criticism. They should be well and promptly paid, that they may maintain their self respect, which is so essential to a dignified bearing. Our preachers who are ever willing to bear their share of sacrifice, should also profit with the advance of prosperity. Yet, as a rule, considering the social and intellectual demands that are made upon him, there are few wage earners who live nearer the bread line than he. They receive without complaint what no member of a labor union would consider for a moment. The minister accepts whatever offering the church sees fit to give. It is a shame for any church to keep its pastor poor, or to make him dishonest, by not paying him sufficient to meet his obligations, or to give his children the ordinary advantages in life. The capital that a capable man must invest in his education, and the hours actually spent in service are far beyond the number demanded by labor unions or business. Acting upon the principle that our ministers should be better paid, I have for the two years I have been in district work, trying to get our dear people to see the necessity of paying better salaries. Thirteen charges last year raised the salaries of their pastors, ranging from $50.00 to $450.00. Making an increase for the district nearly $2,000. We are under obligation to our veterans. They have shown a willingness to assist in any way possible, and have given of their time and energy, preaching, helping to arouse sentiment, and in every way helping in the battle for success. They are all loyal, devoted men, and Bishop there is "nothing against them." No not one.

Revivals.

Notwithstanding the severe winter, and icy roads that prevailed from early in December, until late in February, making it almost impossible to hold revival meetings, we have had times of refreshing. The brethren report 1,842 days spent in revival service and 1,500 saved. At Sheridan, under the leadership of the pastor, W. H. Brightmire, who was his own evangelist, though he was ably assisted by J. J. Fischer, of Roann, who led the singing, there were 255 converted and reclaimed. This revival stirred the city and surrounding community as has no revival in recent years. It was far reaching in its effects. Akron, M. H. Krauss, pastor, reports 177 conversions. This pastor has been practically all winter in evangelistic services, and at every appointment souls were saved. Pleasant Hill were about ready to abandon their field, but since the revival they are planning to build a church and have already a part of the money raised. Market street, and Wheatland avenue, Logansport, had splendid interest in their revivals and a large number were added to the church. Grace church, Kokomo, has had a very large number of accessions, and members have united with the church at nearly every service. We report 12,207 members this year, a net gain over last year of 727.

Miscellaneous.

The Discipline requires the pastor to report pastoral labor to the quarterly conference, and specifies pastoral visiting as a form of pastoral labor. A house-going preacher is said to make a church-going people. I know by my own experience that pastoral visits help a church, and the omission of them hurts a church. My pastors report 25,000 pastoral visits, ranging from 200 to 1,325. Those reporting 1,000 and over are, A. E. Sarah, J. A. Sprague, U. S. A. Bridge, W. H. Brightmire and P. E. Powell, Bishop, we have failed to reach our ideal; but we have done our best, and in conclusion will say, I must express my appreciation for the hearty co-operation of the pastors and officials of the district, and thank them for the many kindnesses shown. With the beginning of last year the preachers and laymen had but one thought in their mind, and that was to bend every energy to bring this district to the highest possible degree of efficiency, and great strides have been made in this direction. We want none but optimistic preachers in the circuits and stations of the Logansport District. We have no easy places. We want none. Opportunity must be met with determination and a will to succeed at any cost in time and labor. It was this tact, industry, and faith that has given us this glorious victory this year. No one can accurately sum up the results of the year, in the labor of thirty-eight consecrated ministers and their wives and children, together with more than 12,000 laymen. Who can estimate these lives? Perhaps the recording angel will set down to many an unheralded deed the highest praise.

“There is an unseen battlefield
In every human breast,
Where two opposing forces meet,
And where they seldom rest.
That field is veiled from mortal sight—
’Tis only seen by one
Who knows alone where victory lies
When each day’s fight is done.”

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

Leslie J. Naftzger, District Superintendent.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—It affords me great pleasure to be able to report that not a break has occurred in our ranks this year. Every man is in the place assigned to him by Bishop Anderson with the exception of E. W. Halpenny, General Secretary of the State Sunday School Association, who has resigned and returned to Canada to take up the Sunday School work there. He asks that the necessary action be taken to transfer him to the Toronto Conference. We have not had a death or a case of serious sickness in any parsonage home. Dr. C. G. Hudson, has had another stroke of apoplexy, and is confined to his home without much prospect of being better, but is cheerful, trustful and blessedly resting until the Master shall say, "It is enough, come up higher." Brother John S. McCarty met with an accident in the Fall of last year, which has confined him to his room, and for the most part, to his chair ever since. He is also afflicted with a cancer on his lower lip, but with it all is so bright, cheery and so consciously resting in the arms of faith that it is a benediction to visit him. I bespeak for these brethren your prayers and urge you to send them messages of cheer. Other personal notation is that Brother E. M. Foster, who has very acceptably served De Soto charge for six years, will at this session ask for a Supernumerary relation and move to his farm in Whitley county, that he may take care of his aged father and mother and that Brother John Wengatz and wife, who have served the past year at McCordsville, have offered themselves and been accepted as Missionaries to Africa and will leave in the Fall for their field of future labor. They are both excellent, consecrated workers and seem well fitted for the mission field. Sister Patterson, wife of our Brother A. M. Patterson, underwent a difficult operation recently at our Hospital at Indianapolis and is recovering nicely and it is hoped that several years have been added to the life of this good sister. The wife of Brother Maupin, our pastor at New Burlington, went successfully through a serious operation in the early Summer and is now about her home and rapidly recovering her former health.

Brother Fansher, our pastor at Hartford City Circuit, and wife are rejoicing in the advent of a beautiful baby girl.

Building and Revivals.

The most important building enterprise in the district is the addition to the Church at Yorktown, which will cost over $10,000.00 and more than double the capacity of that church, providing excellent Sunday School rooms, gymnasium, etc. They expect to be ready for dedication in the latter part of May. The improvement would not have been possible except for the faithfulness of the pastor, J. H. Runkle, and the generosity and earnestness of Brother D. O. Skillen, a layman at Yorktown, as well as many other faithful ones who are putting their very blood into this offering unto the Lord. The next session of the Muncie District Conference is to be held in this church.

Joyce Chapel on the Alexandria Circuit was moved from the extreme south part of the city to a very desirable lot just across from Beulah Park. The church was repaired all at a cost of about $900 and has entered upon a new era of usefulness in this city. The Sunday School has doubled and the congregation largely increased and an excellent revival resulted. Strawton church on the Perkinsville charge has been repaired and re-furnished at a cost of $945, making it a very desirable country church. Mt. Carmel on the Hartford City Circuit has been repaired at a cost of $375. Other charges that have expended $200 or more in repairs are: First Church, Anderson; Fortville, Joliettsville, Matthews, Madison street, Muncie; Harmony, Ingalls charge, Noblesville circuit, High street, Muncie, and Lapel. An excellent pipe organ has been installed in the church at Pendleton, thus adding greatly to the pleasure of worship.

The parsonages at Madison street, Muncie, and Selma were greatly improved by the addition of large verandas.

Indebtedness.

We have had some notable cases of debt paying this year. Perhaps one of the most remarkable is that at Grace Church, Anderson. Brother Everson was sent there last Spring because of his well known ability in this direction. The wisdom of the appointment has been fully justified in the fact that during the year the matter has been thoroughly organized and $2,450 has been paid on the debt.

There is great rejoicing also at Pendleton, where $2,663 has been paid, putting this church entirely out of debt with a surplus on hand. They had a service of rejoicing on the evening of March 31st, when the mortgage and notes were burned while the Doxology was twice sung. Brother Griest and his people are justifiably happy. $1,200 has been paid on the debt for the new church at New Burlington; $850 at Alexandria; $800 at Big Springs on Joliettsville charge; $450 at Selma; another remarkable case is that at Ninth street, Noblesville. This church has carried a debt of over $1,500 from the day it was finished. Brother Webster found the people without faith and with but little enthusiasm, but with his accustomed energy he went at the task and by January 1st, 1910, had it all provided for and $620 have actually been paid. There is no greater victory in this Conference than this. Other churches have paid smaller amounts making a total of $9,883.00 paid on indebtedness this year.

Revivals.

While for the most part our pastors have been very faithful to revival work, we cannot report as many conversions as some other years. I never saw deeper conviction than was manifest in many of the meetings, but for some reason, it seemed difficult to get them to yield and come to the altar. In some cases meetings were held for three and four weeks without any apparent results except a quickening of the church. I can offer no sufficient explanation for this condition of things, but I am sure that the great need of the church is a quickened christian life that shall put our members upon a much higher plane of living and thinking. There is not difference enough now between the average man in the church and the average man of the world. We need to emphasize the old doctrine of justification by faith and sanctification through the Spirit. The reports of the pastors to me indicate that there have been 1,016 conversions. The largest number at High street, Muncie, 200; New Burlington, 87; First Church, Noblesville, 75; Alexandria Circuit, 62; Hartford City Circuit, 64; Carmel, 43; Matthews, 40; Perkinsville, 49; Selma, 40. We have a problem that must be solved in the near future. It is that of the country church. Many that were once strong are now scarcely able to support a pastor at all because so many have left their farms and moved to the city. If the laymen in our large city churches would take up the work and go out on Sabbath afternoons and evenings to these country churches and hold services incalculable good could be accomplished. It would not only build up the country church, but furnish the city church with a better type of laymen.

Benevolences.

I apprehend that our Benevolent collections will suffer somewhat from industrial conditions that prevail in most of our territory. Many of our men have not had steady work all the year; this in addition to the high cost of living has made it practically impossible for some of the people to pay the pastor and have any thing left for benevolences. Knowing the facts as I did, I could not see how they could give very much. In spite of these conditions, however, we will show good gains in the amounts contributed. It would help us immensely if we could get our brethren in the country to feel that now is the day of their opportunity, and they would give proportionately with the people in the smaller stations. Very much of the success depends upon the pastor. Some of our pastors never fail, no matter where they go, to bring up every thing in full and more, while other pastors as invariably allow the amounts to diminish or fail almost entirely. Some pastors in spite of advice and admonitions to the contrary, put off taking the collections until after the holidays, and then bad weather, other responsibilities and above all an effort to bring up the pastor's salary greatly hinders and sometimes makes impossible the raising of the entire apportionment. It also gives little time for gleanings. Some of our pastors have made good gains, most have done well and we will be able to give a good account of ourselves. Our one day Missionary Conventions were better attended than ever before and could all the collections have been taken immediately after them I am sure we would show even greater gains.

Other Statistics.

The pastors of this district have been fairly busy in visiting among their people. They report a total of 24,574 visits, an average of 647 for each pastor. In the number of calls Brother Chesteen W. Smith stands first, having made 1,404; Clark Crawford is second with 1,133; J. H. Runkle third with 1,085; W. A. Griest fourth with 1,025; Chas. J. Everson fifth with 1,023; J. E. Williams sixth with 1,000. Several brethren report over 900 each. We have received 555 on Probation and 267 have been received into Full Connection. Adults have been baptized to the number of 217 and 135 children have been baptized. According to the reports made to me only 295 Western Christian Advocates are taken. I have called attention to the Western both from the pulpit and in the Quarterly Conferences, but it seems impossible to interest our people in our Church papers. I am sure it is not because they do not like the paper so much as it is a growing distaste for religious reading of any sort. Too many of our people are not really interested in the things of the kingdom. They lack a broad vision and the consciousness that they are not simply a local organization, but a part of a very comprehensive plan of our heavenly Father for the subjugation of the world. They judge the spirit of the age, by what they read in the secular papers, and thus do not know what mighty forces God is now putting in motion for the accomplishment of his purpose. They misinterpret and are not alarmed by the spirit of the Roman Church for the same reason. We take 481 Epworth Heralds, a slight increase over last year. Twenty-five pastors report a total of 522 families that have family worship. Thirteen pastors say they do not know anything about it. This means of grace seems to be growing among our people. All our Sunday Schools with but one or two exceptions take our own literature, and most of them use it freely. We have seven Chapters of the Methodist Brotherhood with a membership of 421. They are located at Alexandria; First Church, Anderson; Hartford City; High street Church, Muncie; Pendleton; Summitville and Yorktown. We have 38 organizations of the Ladies' Aid Society. After spending thousands of dollars in improvements and paying old debts, they reported a balance on hand at last report of about $1,800 with which to begin the coming year. By the way they are about the only organization in the Church that reports a balance on hand. I am longing for the time to come when our Church will adopt and use God's financial plan, but now I do not see how we could do our work at all in some places were it not for these organizations.

Conclusions.

Our District Conference at Noble street, Anderson, and our Fast Day Service at First Church, Anderson, will live long in the memory of those present as blessedly helpful meetings. Dr. McConnell, President of De-Pauw opened the District Conference with an address of unusual helpfulness and power. The address of J. W. Cain on Tuesday evening, "Do We Need a New Religion?" gave a spiritual uplift that broke out into a love feast of great helpfulness and interest. Many testified to the power and blessedness of the old time religion. Four promising young men were licensed to preach.

Brother P. J. Albright and Brother J. E. Ervin have been specially helpful in the work of the district and deserve particular mention.

With this Conference I close my term as Superintendent of the Muncie District. I have not accomplished all I desired, indeed I feel as I look at the work needing to be done, that we have scarcely more than touched the fringes. But I have tried to be faithful, I have tried to be arue. I have conscientiously done the things that it seemed to me ought to be done. I can now see where some things might have been done better; had I known then what I know now, I would have done better, but I acted upon my best judgment and the record is on high. I might indulge in statistics showing some of the things accomplished, but I am persuaded it is better to leave the matter with Him who knows our motives and the sincerity of our purpose, and who rewards us not according to our accomplishments, but our faithfulness. I am sure that the work on the district has made me a broader and a more efficient man. I did not ask for the position, but I am glad to have had the experience.

My relationship with all the brethren who have been on the district at any time during the six years has been the most pleasant. I desire here to express my great appreciation of the uniform kindness of the pastors and their wives during this present year. They could not have been more thoughtful of my comfort.

The record of the six years is almost finished, my future is in God's hands, my greatest prayer is that I may be fit for any work He has for me.

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

T. M. Guild, District Superintendent.

Dear Brethren:—This is my fourth annual report of the Richmond District to this Conference. I rejoice in the abundant grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, which has been manifested in all the days of the year. I am not able to report all our hopes would encourage, nor all that has been accomplished. The year has been one of peace, and in some measure one of success.

The long continuous and stormy weather has greatly hindered the preachers and people in their work. Sickness and epidemics have contributed to lessen the reports.

Two parsonage homes have been visited by death. Mrs. Ella Wade, wife of R. J. Wade, after a short illness was called to her eternal home May the 11th. She was a charming woman, in the full vigor of young womanhood, intensely interested in the work of the church, always ready to do her full share, and take her full allotment of responsibility. When informed of the inevitable, approaching end, she gave direction concerning the education of her three little children, and while her friends, by her request, were singing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," her spirit was borne out and up to the celestial city not made with hands. Funeral services were held at Richmond and Nappanee, and her body was laid to rest in the family burying ground near the last named city. In addition to this great sorrow the family was afflicted with scarlet fever; the two little girls and Brother Wade were victims of the disease, causing them to be quarantined for more than a month. Surely the year has been one of sorrow and anxiety, the cup of grief bitter, but out of it all, by the kindness and love of a loyal people and the grace of God, our brother is able to exclaim, "Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

A few years ago, on account of the threatening condition of his wife's health, Brother Arthur Cates was given an appointment in the Wyoming Mission. The change of climate seemed conducive to her full recovery, but when hope's star was shining most brightly a sudden and unexpected hemorrhage of the lungs, followed by pneumonia, blasted all their hopes and on the 14th of September, the blood washed soul of Mrs. Nellie Hines Cates passed into the presence of the King eternal.

Her body was brought to Noblesville, her girlhood home, and laid to rest. Brothers Beeks and Hollopeter officiating at the last sad rites. These brethren are here with sorrow's tears yet undried on their cheeks, and pangs of grief still gnawing at their heart strings; they have tested the Gospel they have preached to others and find it holds.

The family of Brother Loveless has had its full share of sickness; Philip, the little son, was taken to our Methodist Hospital, and by a skillful operation and careful nursing was saved to his home and loved ones. Other families were hindered by ills of less degree.

The following notation should be made. The 1st of September, F. M. Greenstreet, pastor of Philadelphia Circuit, was granted permission to attend Boston School of Theology. I secured P. P. Truitt to supply the place, and success has been achieved. About October 1st, M. E. Barrett was given leave of his charge, Dublin and Lewisville, to continue his studies in DePauw University. C. M. Hobbs was secured to fill out the year. R. N. Ball, a supply at Kennard, was relieved of his work in the middle of the year, and Raymond Stevenson was secured to take up the work. He has done well. The 1st of February, an exchange was effected between W. M. Nelson and Arthur Cates, Brother Nelson going to Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Brother Cates to Grace Church, Richmond. The exchange has proved more than satisfactory to the Grace Church people.

Some devotion and painstaking effort are manifest in the Sunday School work. As a rule our own publications are used. In a few schools the graded lessons are used and are favorably commented upon. We have 70 Sunday Schools with 8,779 officers, teachers and scholars.

The Leagues are holding on with small attendance and lagging interest. In a few instances they are doing excellent service. There are 34 Epworth Leagues with a membership of 1303. Junior League 17, with a membership of 500.

Brotherhoods or Men's meetings are maintained at First and Grace churches, Richmond, New Castle, Dunkirk, Redkey and Knightstown. The laymen of the district are beginning to catch the spirit of the Laymen's movements in the church, and when thoroughly awakened will be of great utility to the benevolent enterprises.

The Ladies' Aid societies have done splendid work, reducing deficits in salary, debts on church and parsonage property, besides adding many improvements to them.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have never done better work than they have done this year.

We have no new churches to report, no parsonages built or dedicated this year. Some improvements have been made on church and parsonage property. About $14,000 have been expended on the payment of debts and improvements during the year. Debts are almost reduced to a minimum, only about $7,000 unprovided for in the entire district, and $3,000 of this in one church. A new church enterprise is developing at Cambridge City, East Greenfield and Liberty Hall. Nearly $1,200 are on subscription for a new parsonage at Centerville.

Membership.

There have been 409 received on probation, and 275 received into full fellowship, yet our membership fails to show an increase. One Brother in reporting nearly a hundred less than last year said: "I have trimmed off the record." The record trimmer has done his work pretty thoroughly in a number of charges. I presume the next pastors will restore the names and thereby make a great record for themselves.

Church Literature.

There is an apparent indifference as to our church papers. Many of the people depend on the Sunday School for their religious reading. There are 297 Advocates and 271 Epworth Heralds taken by our people. Perhaps the people lack the taste, and the preachers the zeal in pushing the canvass.

Benevolences.

For the most part our pastors have been faithful to the trust committed to them. Only one or two cases have the collections fallen below last year. A good increase has been made in all the benevolences, the greatest advance being in Greenfield, Redkey and Spiceland. A noted case is Ogden on the Spiceland charge. Four years ago that point paid on pastoral support $70 all told, and but a very few dollars for benevolences, this year they paid $385 on pastoral support and $530 for benevolences. The secret of it is a tithing band of 36 bring their tithes into the storehouse. This is but a little village, mostly farmers belong to the church, and yet they had an average of 84 at the prayer meeting for the quarter. Would to God all Methodists would bring the tithes into the storehouse and there would be meat for all necessities. The increase for Missions lacks but a few dollars of $2,000.

Revivals.

We have but few sweeping revivals to report, but in nearly every charge some people have been converted, reclaimed or have experienced the blessing of perfect love. A gracious meeting was held at Greenfield, Dr. Line, pastor. The number professing to be converted was 242. Brother Johnson, of St. Louis, Mo., was the evangelist; but the meeting was on when he arrived. Conversions were not a few at cottage prayer meetings, backsliders were reclaimed and the indifferent aroused. Every interest of the church has been advanced, nearly $500 for benevolences over last year, larger prayer meetings and an increase in the Sunday School and Epworth Leagues. A union evangelistic effort was held at Cambridge City under the direction of Brother Tillman Hobson. The city was aroused as it has not been in many years. The meeting was well planned and successfully carried out. Brother Coffin was in the midst of the fray and looked after the Methodistically inclined folks; about 50 have signified their desire for fellowship with us. Spiceland, S. B. Stookey, pastor, has been in a revival spirit all the year. The results of the meetings are 75 professions of conversion, 15 reclamations and 25 found the fullness of redeeming grace. Tithing bands have been organized at both places, and the treasury is overflowing. New Castle had a very helpful meeting under the leadership of the Kerr Brothers; 50 are reported as converted, 20 reclaimed. Millgrove Circuit, E. C. Hallman, pastor, has had a good year; 45 have been converted and 5 reclaimed. Brother Hallman has proved his call to preach and will ask the conference to admit him on trial at this session. He was married about the middle of the year. If any preacher has had excuse for not holding meetings, Brother Loveless has, for besides the illness of his son, his wife and five children have had the measles, yet he reports 12 weeks of meetings, traveled more than 1,200 miles, reports 43 conversions, 20 backsliders reclaimed and five obtained perfect cleansing. A most blessed revival was held at Union City, J. F. Radcliffe, pastor. Brother Don Nickols had charge of the meeting. The church was greatly quickened, the membership increased, and 40 people found the Saviour.

Winchester has had a prosperous year. No special meeting, but a spirit of yielding to Christ has been manifest throughout the year; 42 have taken the vows of fellowship in the church and promised to lead a new life. Good meetings have been the rule on the Shirley charge. Brother Phillips is a gospel preacher that believes a genuine repentance is necessary to salvation; 40 people have peace in believing. Roscoe S. Shaw has had a good year on the Trenton charge; 40 people were at the altar and professed to have found the Saviour precious, some of them persons of advanced age. He found a helpmeet indeed in the person of his wife; they were married May 19th.

Salamonia Circuit has been visited with gracious refreshing showers. G. W. Linville is the pastor. He is but a boy in looks and age, but a workman that needeth not to be ashamed. He organized a class at Liberty Hall, a school house, held a revival, and now there is to be a new church. Fifty-five have been converted, 8 reclamations and 3 sanctified. They say they must have him another year. Others pastors that have not been personally mentioned have toiled as hard, have been as faithful as these though without such apparent large fruitage. The total conversions reported for the year 1,025, reclamations 124, and 52 entered into perfect love.

Pastoral Work.

The pastors for the most part have devoted the full time to their work. They report 200 weeks of meetings, 18,000 pastoral calls and 3,800 sermons preached.

The retired brethren of the district are in favor with the people. Dr. Hill has gone to Indianapolis to live, much to the regret of his Richmond friends. Dr. Mahin holds to his youthful ways and preaches when he gets an opportunity. Brother Harrison is employing his time in profitable endeavor to make a livelihood. Brother Forkner is in ill health most of the time, unable to do any work. Great affliction has come to him in the death of a charming daughter, a young lady of much promise. Brother Bills is abundant in labors, helping the brethren. He is a faithful man. Brother Bilheimer is a great general man doing what he can do in the local church.

Thus I have written, but not all that could be said of the faithful ministers and their work. We need a greater passion for souls, a deeper consecration to our work, greater care in administering discipline, more painstaking oversight in the details of our duties, an ambition to be all our Father would have us be, and to do perfectly the wish of our Master and Lord.

Thus the record of the year is written,
To make it better, we would if we could:
But the opportunities are gone forever.
To the future of toil we now should turn
With buoyant hearts and firm endeavor
To make the most of privileges, whatever
God gives, and this will we do wherever
We are sent by the church to work together.

WABASH DISTRICTB. S. Hollopeter, District Superintendent

Bishop and Brethren: The pastors assigned to the thirty-five charges of Wabash District at our last Conference have all remained at their post of duty throughout the year and come with gratifying reports of a faithful year's labor. A most delightful spirit has prevailed among the pastors and people during the year. It has been a continual pleasure to mingle with them in their labors for the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ.

There has been no death or serious sickness in any of the parsonage homes during the year, yet the shadows have fallen upon some hearts. Rev. C. A. Rowand, Rev. G. B. Work, Rev. Ch. H. Smith and Rev. David Wells have each been bereaved in the death of their fathers and Rev. J. W. Cain of his aged mother.

At about four o'clock Sunday morning, February 6, God took our Dear Brother W. J. Vigus from his home on earth to a Home above. Dr. Vigus lived a victorious life and died a victorious death. He was to have preached the semi-centennial sermon at this session of the Conference. His funeral was held from First Church, Wabash, February 9, and was attended by a large number of his brethren of the Conference.

Two of the brethren have multiplied their influence for good and added greatly to their happiness by marrying excellent wives. They are Clyde G. Yeomans, of Roanoke, and W. H. Harrison, of Sims.

Brother and Sister Smith, of Markle, and Brother and Sister Lutes, of Andrews, have welcomed little ones to their parsonage homes.

Building and Improvements

Brother W. W. Wiant, of Warren Circuit, commenced early in the Conference year to promote a new Church enterprise at Majenica. The old church was moved into the village and rebuilt with a new room and basement added. New art glass windows, furnace, carpet, seats and tower. The property is worth $5,000. The cost of improvements was $3,600. It was dedicated by the District Superintendent November 21, 1909, when $2,000 was raised to complete the payment.

When Brother A. J. Duryee was appointed to Liberty Mills one year ago, there seemed to be no prospect there of a new church. The old church had served the congregation for fifty-five years, but was inadequate and unsafe. The pastor inspired the people to faith and then to action. A subscription was taken and the board of trustees reorganized, and a new and modern church was built, costing $5,000. It was dedicated February 20, 1910, by the District Superintendent, at which time $2,700 was raised.

Brother C. M. Lantis, of Point Isabel charge, has far surpassed his previous good record in church building, and has displayed unusual ability in managing financial affairs. A new church was built at Rigdon, on this charge, that I think will surpass any church in the Conference in a country community. It cost $10,767, and in plan, workmanship, beauty and utility it has few equals anywhere. It was dedicated March 20 by the District Superintendent, at which time $5,250 was raised to cover all indebtedness. With the splendid new church built last year at Point Isabel, this charge has church property valued at $18,000. After a very successful pastorate here, Brother Lantis retires to become the Superintendent of the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged.

The contract for the new church at Fairmount was let early in July and will be completed and ready for dedication sometime in next June. Brother Nickerson has been doing heroic service on this charge, and while the building has gone forward slowly it has gone well. The church when complete will cost about $12,000, and is a model of beauty and utility. The dedication of this church will mark a new day for Methodism in this beautiful little city.

At Mt. Etna, where H. W. Park is pastor, $3,500 in pledges and cash has been secured. The old church has been torn down and everything made ready for the building of a new and modern church. His benevolences will be doubled and a splendid increase in membership will be reported.

Brother W. W. Kent, at Jonesboro, planned early in the Conference for a new parsonage and with rare skill guided the affairs of its building to a most happy conclusion. He now lives in a splendid new home with all modern conveniences. It cost $2,000 besides the ground and much valuable material from the old house. It is all paid for.

At South Whitley they have raised $840 for improvements on the church. A new hardwood floor has been laid in the entire church, a superior job of frescoing has been done and the church and parsonage are both in splendid shape. Brother B. Kendall, the pastor, raised the money and directed the work and is deservedly a very popular man in this community.

Brother C. A. Hile is improving the parsonage at Burket at a cost of $400, also placing a furnace in Cook's Chapel church, and other smaller improvements on churches and parsonages have been made until it can truly be said they are in good repair. The amount raised during the year for building new churches and parsonage homes and improving old ones is $32,000. In every case where improvements have been made the pastor has been the leader in the movement, and in some cases it required heroic effort to accomplish the good work.

G. B. Work has made himself the most popular preacher Warren ever had by his great preaching and by making everything beautiful around parsonage and church, a good example for many.

The church at Markle has given a splendid example of what can be done in bringing a great enterprise to a successful conclusion. Brother

C. H. Smith was appointed one year ago as their pastor to follow one of the most successful men of the Conference; but the work went right on, the subscriptions were collected, the last dollar of debt was paid on its splendid new church and a balance is on hand which will be the start for a new pipe organ.

Brother W. E. Murray, of Van Buren, announced to his people some weeks before Thanksgiving that every dollar of their $1,200 debt must be paid by that holiday. It seemed a thing impossible but he rounded up the matter to a happy conclusion at the appointed time, and the long standing note was burned amid the rejoicing of the people.

Brother C. G. Yeomans paid an old and troublesome debt of $350 at Roanoke and has brought joy to this people. Every line of work has prospered in his hands and they will show their appreciation by a liberal increase in the pastor's salary for next year.

The debt on the Point Isabel church is being paid as fast as the subscriptions become due, and will be greatly reduced this year.

Benevolences

Notwithstanding that so large amount has been raised for building and improving church and parsonage property and paying old debts, the benevolences will not suffer. Nearly every charge in the district will report an increase over last year.

Brother Thomas F. Payne, a godly layman of First Church, Wabash, put a draft of $6,600 into the hands of his pastor, D. H. Guild, for Foreign Missions. This was the expression of his deep gratitude to God for His help in some trying experiences. He had planned that this gift should come to the Missionary Society ten years after his death, but God kept adding years to his life until he has passed four score years and more. And as the years grow, so also does his love and interest in the Kingdom of Christ and he could not longer wait to send this splendid gift on its gracious mission.

With this gift Wabash District will easily lead all the districts of the Conference this year in the amount contributed for Benevolences.

The regular collections will show an increase of about $2,400. The charges reporting all apportionments in full are Marion First Church, Huntington, Markle, Upland, Van Buren, Jonesboro, Liberty Mills, Churubusco and Warren. Every charge but four report a good increase over last year.

Besides the regular benevolences $1,545 has been secured for the Old People's Home. The Anti-Saloon League and other good causes have been helped, or $21,000 for all benevolent purposes.

Our District Missionary

We are more and more convinced that God's guiding hand was in the matter of sending Dr. A. W. Greenman to our Missionary work in Italy as our District Missionary. He has been of very great service there as District Superintendent of Southern Italy and Treasurer of our Italian Missions. The shares contributed by the Epworth Leagues, supplemented by the Self-denial offering, has been sufficient to meet his salary in full; this responsibility has brought much good to the chapters.

Pastor's Salaries

There has been a very marked improvement in the salaries of the pastors for the year. Eighteen of the salaries have been increased to the amount of $2,160. Huntington church has put their salary at $2,000 for Dr. Lenig, making this one of the very best charges in the Conference. Uniondale Circuit raised the salary from $650 to $1,000 and find it easy to pay this amount to their popular pastor, W. H. Gray. Brother Trabue, at Columbia City, had his salary increased to $1,200 and this church is in the best shape it has ever been. Burket increased from $600 to $800 for Brother Hile. Van Buren increased to $1,000 for Brother Murray. Liberty Mills went up $100 for Brother Duryce and was paid the most promptly of any salary in the district. They pay all benevolences more than full, notwithstanding building their new church. Sims went up $30 for Brother Harrison.

The Quarterly Conference at First Church, Marion, after giving very hearty commendation of the work of their popular pastor, C. A. Rowand, decided to increase his salary to $2,200 for next year. The men of Marion never went to church as well as they do now. This church makes an increase of $200 for regular benevolences and 115 increase in membership.

The estimating committee at Jonesboro met and put Brother Kent's salary at $1,000 for next year and thus show their sincere desire for his return.

Brother Kent increases his benevolences and has had a most delightful year.

At Lafontaine Brother O. B. Morris will have one less appointment than last year and will receive the same salary. This is equal to an increase of $200.

Three years ago thirteen charges paid $600 or less. Now but two will pay less than $700 cash salary and I think there is no charge in the district but can be brought to $800. These large increases are brought about by pastors who do their work faithfully and who do not complain of conditions, but remedy them.

Revivals and Membership

The old time power has not died out in our churches in Wabash District. Splendid revivals were held and many were truly converted at the altars of prayer and in the homes of the people. Church members were reclaimed and greatly quickened in spiritual life. We have had 1,259 added to our church membership in full connection and many on probation. The net gain of members in full connection is 504. A few over 400 were reported as removed without letter. Where are the 400, is a question that ought to concern us more than it does. One pastor who found 113 marked with the familiar notation, "Removed without letter," found 76 of these and lined them up for the church. The laymen seem eager to prune the church records to the lowest possible point, and sometimes a pastor gives way to the same temptation. It will do us good to read frequently Christ's parable of the lost sheep, and go and do likewise.

Pastors of the following charges reported twenty or more conversions: Huntington, 95; First Church, Marion, 78; First Church, Wabash, 60; Ninth and Sweetser, 60; Markle, 48; Sims, 45; Roanoke, 41; Fairmount, 35; Unjondale, 35; Mt. Etna, 25; Warren Circuit, 23; Lafontaine, 20; Silver Lake, 20. These do not include larger numbers in the Church who have been reclaimed or quickened into new life.

Sunday Schools

We have seventy-four Sunday Schools in the district that are offered by competent men and women who are doing much for the advancement of our cause. The Adult Bible Class is becoming a helpful feature of this work. We have the best literature that is printed for Sunday School purposes, and every school in the district is Methodist in this matter.

The Methodist Brotherhood

This youngest child in our Methodist family is having a splendid beginning in the Wabash District. Brother O. A. Trabue is our District Vice President and he has been doing his work well. We have Brotherhoods organized at Andrews, Columbia City, Gas City, Huntington, Jonesboro, Larwill, Marion First Church, Sweetser, North Manchester, Wabash First Church and also at Wabash St. The largest one is at Marion, where the membership is nearly 200. Here, as elsewhere, it has made a splendid impression on the public and large numbers of men are attending the regular church services as the result.

The Epworth League

The Epworth Leagues of the district have been greatly profited by having the responsibility of the support of Dr. A. W. Greenman, our Missionary in Italy, and they have been a real help to the pastors in the revivals and in the more spiritual work of the church. The Annual Convention, held in Marion last June, was a great inspiration to the Leaguers over the district and resulted in much good.

Women's Societies

The W. F. M. Society and the W. H. M. S. are active and doing a great work. They bring information to the churches concerning our Missionary work and greatly stimulate them to missionary effort. It is a blessing to any church to have these societies in their midst. The year has been one of incessant toil and added to the regular work of the district I have, with others, given much attention to the building of the Home for the Aged at Warren. And when I think of the great good that is to come to worthy aged as a result, I am more than content. I have raised at dedication of churches and by personal solicitation for the initial subscription for the same, $15,000. I have done my best for the advancement of every interest of the church in the Wabash District and I desire here to express my deep appreciation for the privilege of co-operating with what seems to me to be the best set of men ever gathered in one district. They are strong men, and godly men, men who preach a constructive gospel and bring things to pass. We truly thank God for a place to labor that brings us into the fellowship of such men. Four Superannuates live within the district, A. Greenman, H. Bridge, T. C. Neal and J. W. Tillman. They are all sweet spirited and helpful. The parsonage homes made me welcome everywhere and kindness has been shown me everywhere.

Reports

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

With the rapid growth of small cities into larger cities and of great cities into greater cities it becomes more and more difficult for the local churches by ordinary agencies, and singly, to interest not only the outside masses, but their own membership in evangelistic services. Then, too, there are large sections of our population, such as the coal miners, who are greatly neglected, so far as any effective evangelizing efforts are concerned. We hold that Methodism should meet the needs here indicated by creating and financing a more comprehensive plan of evangelism. We recommend that the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension prepare and present such plan to our next General Conference for its consideration.

THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The Bible stands as the greatest instrument in the hands of man, for the promulgation of peace and prosperity.

The American Bible Society was organized for the purpose of giving the scriptures without note or comment to the most needy fields either free or at lowest cost. The distribution is made among immigrants, in hospitals, prisons, almshouses, the navy, the army, among the poor and the blind. The work of this society is indispensable to the circulation of the Bible, making an increasingly large demand upon the resources of the society, and we rejoice that the Christian people have subscribed the $500,000 necessary to meet the conditions of Mrs. Russell Sage for one million dollars endowment for the society.

We commend the American Bible Society to our people, and plead for a more generous support for this most worthy agency for the spread of the Gospel of our Lord. We furthermore recommend that the apportionment for the coming year be four cents per member.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PUBLICATIONS.

We profoundly regret the decrease in the circulation of our Advocates notwithstanding the ability disclosed in the editorials, the contributed articles, the attractive form, the general arrangement of the papers, their workmanship, and quality of the material used. We notice that some forms of publications seem to be duplicated in our periodicals. To aid in arresting this decrease in circulation, to assist in placing our Advocates upon a permanent, self supporting basis we offer the following suggestions:

- 1st. That the editorial columns be maintained.
- 2nd. That the news matter be increased.
- 3rd. That the contributions in story pages be in part eliminated.
- 4th. That the doctrinal and theological matter be in part eliminated.
- 5th. That the change in form and material be such as to give us a weekly paper at a dollar per year, at which figure, we believe we could many times multiply the number of subscribers.

At the request of the publishing agent, Mr. E. R. Graham, we set apart Sunday, April 24th as Advocate day and we will faithfully present the great advantages of having an Advocate in each and every home. On that day we will secure subscribers for the Western Christian Advocate at one dollar for the remainder of this calendar year. We particularly urge each pastor to subscribe for, pay for, and read one or more of our Advocates.

CLASS MEETING.

We are glad to note that in the experience of the past the old time Methodist Class meeting has been and ever will be an important and essential factor in maintaining and building up the Spiritual life of the church.

Therefore: We recommend that each pastor will give personal attention to the appointing of efficient leaders and an opportune time for holding regular meetings.

And further recommend that where class meetings are not being held that the office of class leader as the assistant of the pastor in his spiritual relations to the membership be preserved.

CONFERENCE CORPORATION.

The officers of the Conference Corporation held a meeting in the First M. E. Church, Bluffton, Indiana, April 8, 1910. The secretary called attention, to the fact that they had been made trustees of a fund left from the estate of the late Jane Douglas, under the provision of her will, for a period of 999 years. He further stated that they were to use whatever funds that were necessary to keep in proper repair the burial lot of the deceased in the cemetery at Leo, Indiana.

On motion of J. E. Ervin, the secretary was ordered to look after the lot and have the necessary work done, to meet the provisions of the will. On motion of D. V. Williams, the treasurer, was ordered to make a safe investment of the funds and to pay all necessary expenses connected with the keeping of the lot in proper repair. On motion of J. E. Ervin, the meeting adjourned.

CONNECTIONAL FUND.

Your committee on Connectional Funds of the Board of Conference Claimants makes the following report:

First—We rejoice in the work of the Board of Conference Claimants. It has persistently and carefully urged on pastors and people the duty of caring for Conference Claimants with the result that there was an increase in 1910 of over $85,000 in the amounts paid by the annual conferences to their own claimants, and the board is now distributing $19,000 to the needy conferences and to special or necessitous cases this year.

Second—We urge the observance of a "Veteran's Sunday" at some time during the year (preferably Sunday, May 22, 1910), in the interests of the claimants, and the use of the most excellent program provided by the board; and request that on that day the pastors urge not only the duty of local support of their own Conference Claimants, but also the interests of the Connectional Fund of the Board of Conference Claimants, which ministers to the needs of superannuates everywhere, especially in the more needy conferences; and take up a collection equal to at least the apportionment of one per cent. of the pastor's salary.

Third—We recommend that the treasurer of the Conference be authorized to receive the dividend from the Board of Conference Claimants and to remit to the board the conference percentages.

Fourth—We recommend the appointment of an "Annual Conference Board of Connectional Relief," to consist of one layman and one preacher from each district, who shall advise with the Board of Conference Claimants and assist in the benevolent and connectional work in behalf of the superannuates.

Fifth—We commend the program for 1910-11, as promulgated by the Board of Conference Claimants, to the favorable consideration of our conference and churches, and to the generosity of our laymen. The keynote sounded by the board is, "A Million for Superannuates in 1910-11."

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, your committee on District Conference Records submit the following report. We have carefully examined the records of Muncie, Fort Wayne and Goshen districts and find them neatly and correctly kept. We commend the faithfulness of the secretaries, J. B. McNary, J. K. Cecil and J. C. Woodruff.

EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education.

1. The Children's Day Fund, taken in the Sunday School on the second Sunday of June, is for Student Aid and belongs to the Board of Education. It is apportioned at 10 per cent. of the Foreign Missionary collection. It should be sent to New York and should carefully discriminate from the Rally Day collection in October, which is for the board of Sunday Schools and which should be sent to Dr. C. Downey, Chicago, Ill.

2. The collection taken in our Church Congregation, as an addition to the conference or public educational collection is apportioned by our board in the amount equal to 3 per cent. of the apportionment for foreign missions and is for the aid of our schools for people of the white race in the South. The proceeds should be sent to the Board of Education, at New York.

3. The Conference Educational collection is for the aid of the denominational college in our territory and should be sent to the president of DePauw University or paid to the treasurer of the Conference.

The American University.

It is our conviction that the American University in its scope of work contemplated, is finally to meet a great need of our young people for opportunity in advanced scholarship, in our own country, hence is to be commended to large means for favorable consideration, that it may soon be completed and open for students in all its departments.

Appreciating the honor of having the Endowment Secretary, the Rev. F. F. Stone, chosen from our own Conference, we will gladly co-operate with him in his effort to increase the endowment.

DePauw University.

The interests of this university are identified with the interest of our great State and our beloved Church. About a thousand of our young people are enrolled as students. There is the most profound respect for and deep appreciation of the ability of President F. J. McConnell. He is bringing a larger life and influence to our school than that ever enjoyed before. We earnestly urge our young people to consider the opportunities for advanced education as offered by this school with its efficient faculty and excellent equipment. We recommend that 15 cents per member be apportioned for the current expense fund.

Taylor University.

We commend Taylor University, a school under the control of the National Local Preachers' Association and within the boundaries of our Conference. This university has furnished and is furnishing to our Conference some very devoted men, whose ministry brings credit to their school.

Theological Seminaries.

Drew Theological Seminary of Madison, N. J., has for its object the training up of a Godly and learned ministry, which shall meet the demands of our age in pulpit power, evangelistic fervor and devotion to the spiritual and social welfare of humanity. Equipped with the largest theological library in the United States, and a faculty second to none, the seminary offers in addition to the regular theological work practical instruction in sociology, and by arrangement with Columbia and New York Universities, students are allowed to pursue studies in these institutions without cost. We are pleased to commend this school to all young ministers seeking a theological education.

The Boston School of Theology exists for the whole kingdom. Every part of the world has felt its influence. While other schools may have a falling off in the number of students this most excellent school has shown an increase for every year of the last quadrennium. The faculty is a commanding faculty, known for its scholarship and piety. The students have the benefit of the social work and the laboratory method. The newest lines of the modern methods are taught. We commend this oldest school of American Methodism. We enter into the deep sorrow felt by this school and all Methodism at the sudden and unexpected death of Dr. Borden P. Bowne.

Garrett Biblical Institute adjacent to Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., offers students amplest opportunities for the study of theology and preparation for the ministry. The advantages of the University are open to them as well as the great libraries of the city of Chicago.

Trustees.

We recommend the Hon. W. T. Durbin and R. S. Todd to the Conference for the election to the Board of Trustees of DePauw University.

Visitors.

1. DePauw University—C. W. Smith, D. D., for a term of three years, beginning September 1, 1910.
2. Drew Theological Seminary—Frank P. Morris.
3. Garrett Biblical Institute—R. J. Wade and W. A. Griest.

4. Boston School of Theology—R. L. Seamans.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

This important department of the church has made for itself a creditable record during the year. While the work of the League has not been marked with the enthusiasm of former years it has been none the less effective in broadening the sympathies, developing the talents, deepening the consecration of our young people.

In the churches where there has been an aggressive and competent leadership the Epworth League has been a spiritual force in the community. The need of the present day is for pastors who will give greater attention to the selection and development of leaders for the local chapters.

We recommend to those who prepare the program for the District Conventions that Institute features as far as possible be added.

We pledge our co-operation to the Executive Committee of the State in their efforts to secure men in our own State who will specialize in the various departments of League work and thus be prepared to serve in our Conventions.

At the annual meeting of the Conference Board of Control, Rev. B. Earle Parker was elected as president for the following year and Miss Nellie Mason, of Bluffton, as secretary.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Missionary Society Report.

We rejoice to see the increasing interest in Foreign Missions. This is the purest benevolence.

Whatever increases the giving to evangelize these great foreign fields will increase the giving to evangelize our home land. Hence all efforts to circulate information among our people concerning the great need and success of our foreign work should be encouraged.

Every pastor should give the people all facts possible concerning these vast fields already white for the harvest. Because the more the people know the more willingly they will give.

We recommend:

First—The rallying cry for a "Million Dollars for Missions" from our Sunday Schools alone.

Second—The present plan for holding great Missionary conventions for the purpose of increasing the interest and liberality of the laymen for the evangelization of the world. We believe that it means the dawning of the new day in making the Kingdom of this world the Kingdom of Our Christ. We call upon our people not only to give, but to fervently pray for the success of our Foreign Missionaries.

 W. R. WONES, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID.

Your committee on Freedmen's Aid most respectfully reports:

1. The last annual report of this society shows that our colored people in the South are crowding our twenty-two schools and colleges to such an extent that increased buildings and equipment are sorely needed by our institutions. The number of colored young people anxious for industrial and professional training is vastly greater than our accommodations can supply. The colored people are rapidly realizing that the training of the hand and the head constitutes the principal means of uplift in this age, and are making every sacrifice that such training may be attained. Our schools constitute the only means by which Christian ministers, teachers, doctors and other leaders shall be prepared for the 350,000 colored members in our own church, and to a large extent for the ten millions of black people in the United States. The colored people gave for their own schools last year $28,830.32; one of their Conferences, the South Carolina, giving $6,225.26 of this amount.

2. For the moral and religious training of the colored people our schools are indispensable. The Christian teacher is more than a mere teacher of trades and industries. He is the director and example of the moral and religious life of the young people. No young man or woman can be in one of our schools for any length of time without receiving more or less of the great Christian impress necessary to the development of moral manhood and womanhood. In order to do our share towards the moral and spiritual uplift of this race, we must give them the Christian teacher.

3. The board asks the whole Church for $250,000, or one-fifth of the apportionment for Home Missions and Church Extension. Of this amount the Northern Indiana Conference is apportioned $5,500. We hereby pledge ourselves to present this cause at least once during the year to our congregations, and give our people an opportunity to contribute towards this most needful work. Lincoln Sunday has come to be one of the institutions of the Church. It offers the best opportunity during the year for presenting the cause of the freedmen to our congregations. If it be inconvenient to do so at any other time during the year we can at least present the cause on this Sunday and take the offering. The amount of our collection for the Freedmen's Aid cause this year is $3,513. This is an increase over last year of $1,245, for which we congratulate the Conference.

Most respectfully submitted,

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSIONS.

We want to acknowledge the official visit of Ward Platt, assistant corresponding secretary, and thank him for his able exposition of the achievements and needs of the board. We heartily commend the administration of the board.

We notice that the North Indiana Conference has had no missionary money expended within its borders and only $750 of church extension fund has been appropriated for the coming year.

We note the decrease of $2,000 in the appropriation and trust that this year it may be met in full. We also wish to state that the General Conference instructs us through our corresponding secretary, Robert Forbes, that one-fifth of the general receipts of the board are set apart for church extension and that four-fifths are used for Home Missions.

Resolved, First—That we recommend the support of the board according to the action of the general committee.

Resolved, Second—That we exhort our ministers to be prompt in reporting the names of all those who pay one dollar or more that they may receive the "Christian Republic," and that points of interest be noted and made mention of, from the pulpit throughout the year, and persuade our people to read "Methodism and the Republic," and "America, the World's Greatest Mission Field."

HOSPITAL.

Report of the committee on Methodist Episcopal Hospital and Deacons' Home of the State of Indiana.

We are pleased to note the splendid work now being done by the hospital in the large number of patients cared for and in the earnest effort to pay the debt on the building and in the securing of endowment and a sustaining fund.

We recommend that a page be given without charge to the hospital for advertising purposes. We approve the action of the trustees in providing for the erection of a new building and in the establishing of a children's ward for the care of poor and afflicted children, and we recommend that May 15, be observed as Sunday School Hospital Day and that each Sunday School be urged to make a generous free-will offering to this ward.

We heartily commend the faithful and efficient work of the corresponding secretary, Dr. D. M. Wood, and cordially invite him to our pulpits and promise to assist him in every possible way.

We recommend that the district superintendents apportion to the charges an amount equal to ten cents per member for a sustaining fund.

We favor the building and furnishing of a room in the hospital for the use of members of this Conference and their families and recommend that the Rev. C. Claude Travis be placed in charge of this movement and receive the subscriptions of fifteen dollars from members of the Conference.

We nominate Dr. W. D. Parr, of Kokomo, for trustee, term to expire 1913.

INCIDENT AT VATICAN.

We believe that narrowness and intolerance have no warrant in the Word of God, and therefore no place among the constructive forces of the Church of to-day. Believing also, that a great majority of the American people stand for religious liberty and the spirit of toleration, that is "first pure, then peaceable." Therefore, resolved:

First—That we recognize splendid examples of true "Americanism" in the recent refusal of two distinguished Americans to submit to dictation from the "Vatican" as to their personal rights.

Resolved, Second—That we deplore the bitter outbursts of certain persons high in ecclesiastical authority, who seek to injure the accredited missionaries of our church, whom good men honor and follow, and whose work is manifestly blest of God.

Resolved, Third—We declare again "the world is our parish, that we are conscious-bound to answer the 'Macedonian Cry,' that we believe in our Missionaries at home and in foreign lands, especially in Italy, that we will defend them against all unjust assaults at home or abroad, for we are brethren in spirit and doctrines."

Resolved, Fourth—That we will make apology to no man or institution for our church at work in all lands, and are willing to submit our history, past and present, in the fear of God, as all must to that supreme test, "By their fruits, ye shall know them."

Resolved, Fifth—That we earnestly urge our pastors to scatter everywhere among our people the printed deliverances of Bishop Earl Cranston, L. L. D. These deliverances grow out of the issues now on again, between Papacy and Protestant Americanism, and are dignified, clear and unanswerable as to facts and arguments and we believe leave little else to be said.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE ARBITRATION.

While we hold that every government should make ample provisions to preserve peace, to execute law within its borders, and to protect itself against any unjust encroachment upon its rights or liberties by foreign powers, we are nevertheless convinced that practical disarmament should be the ultimate aim of all nations. Therefore;

Resolved, First—That we are in hearty sympathy with the rapidly growing movement that seeks the settlement of all international disputes by arbitration, and earnestly pray for the speedy coming of the time when world-wide peace shall continually prevail.

Resolved, Second—That we deprecate the enormous expenditures of men and money involved in the support of the vast armies and navies of our day, and we regret that conditions exist which seem to make it necessary that our government shall continue to make large appropriations for armored vessels and munitions of war.

Resolved Third—That we commend the gracious benefactions of Mr. Andrew Carnegie in providing a suitable Palace of Peace for the accommodation of the Hague tribunal.

THE KNIGHTS OF THE HOLY GRAIL AND THE REV. P. E. POWELL.

The boy problem of the Methodist Episcopal Church is worthy of earnest consideration. To this end an organization called the Knights of the Holy Grail of which Bishop Fowler was, and Bishop Berry now is the chief officer, founded and successfully promoted by the Rev. Perry E. Powell, a member of our Conference, happily is meeting the needs of this training and culture in our Church. To develop successfully this organization it is essential that some one give his time to the same.

As members of the North Indiana Conference we cordially commend the Holy Grail and our brother member, the Rev. Perry Edwards Powell, Ph. D., to the consideration of all pastors and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

MEMORIAL HOME.

Your committee on the Memorial Home for the Aged, respectfully submit the following report:

1. We rejoice that success has crowned the efforts during the year in laying the corner stone and the completion of the main building and dedicating the same.

2. We congratulate the building committee on the beauty and solidity of the building erected at such a reasonable cost. The plant was a surprise to those visiting it, exceeding in every regard their expectation.

3. We had cherished the hope that Brother Chopson might have lived to see the home in active operation, but God in His wise Providence saw otherwise and we extend to Sister Chopson our deepest sympathy and rejoice that she was permitted to be present at the dedicatory services April 7th.

4. That as pastors we hereby repledge our support to this important work. The necessity and beauty of this philanthropy grows upon us.

5. We desire to express our appreciation to the Board of Trustees and Secretary for their sacrifice and efficient labor during the year.

6. The following have been nominated to constitute the Board of Trustees for the ensuing year:

Ministers—Cyrus U. Wade, Brenton S. Hollopeter, James A. Beatty, John K. Cecil, Frank P. Morris, Wallace W. Martin.

Laymen—E. P. Miller, Warren; George Kreigbaum, Warren; Abram May, Markle; F. B. Wilkinson, Logansport; James W. Sale, Bluffton.

SUPPORT OF THE METHODIST MEMORIAL HOME FOR THE AGED.

Whereas, The Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged is dedicated and now open for its humanitarian work, and

Whereas, The number of worthy aged persons seeking its care and comfort is far beyond the income necessary to permit their admission to the Home, and

Whereas, The arrangements for special days and services in behalf of the Home has shown the large value of the plan to bring the Home directly to the attention, thought and concern of the people. Therefore be it

Resolved, That the last two Sundays of June of each year be designated as Old Peoples' Home Days. Be it further

Resolved, That on each charge and in each church in our Conference, special services be held with sermon and song, and that the people be given the opportunity to make free-will gifts by subscription and in cash for the support of the Home.

Resolved, That each pastor shall report the result to his district superintendent immediately upon holding such services, and that he shall send a report of donors and respective amounts contributed to the Corresponding Secretary of the Home.

Resolved, That the Conference Statistical blanks and minutes shall hereafter contain the name, and a space for reporting the amounts contributed to the Home for the Aged.

ENDORSED BY THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

STATE WIDE MEMORIAL HOME.

Report of committee on State Wide Memorial Home for the Aged. To the North Indiana Conference, Bluffton, Ind.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—Your committee appointed at the last session to meet like committees from the other conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Indiana, beg leave to submit the following report: By our request the Northwest Indiana Conference at its session in the city of Crawfordsville in the fall and the Indiana Conference at its session in the city of Washington, Indiana, a little later, each appointed a committee.

On the 28th of December last representatives from these committees met the committee from the North Indiana Conference at Warren, Indiana, and looked over the building then in process of construction. They inquired upon what terms the institution might become State-wide. Your committee informed them that no terms had been agreed upon by the Conference as yet, but that your committee would recommend to the North Indiana Conference the following terms:

When either of the other Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Indiana, shall have raised in cash a sum equivalent to the $25,000 raised by the North Indiana Conference, then such conference or conferences shall be entitled to equal share in the management of the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged, and share equally in the properties donated by the late William Chopson and other assets of the institution.

The Board of Trustees are in harmony with the recommendation of this committee, and the same is herewith submitted for your consideration.

METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

We, the officers of the Conference Brotherhood, beg to submit the following report:

We rejoice in the rapid advancement of the Methodist Brotherhood movement in the church at large and urge all our pastors to earnest co-operation with the laymen in the establishment of chapters in their respective charges, and the furtherance of this great campaign of men for men.

Chapters of the brotherhood have been established in forty charges in the conference and are doing splendid work.

This organization, wisely used, may be of inestimable value to the pastor and to the entire church.

We recommend a close affiliation of the brotherhood with the Layman's Missionary Movement to their mutual benefit, and urge a large attendance upon the first general convention of the Brotherhood to be held in Indianapolis, May 8-10. We further suggest that each local men's organization send two delegates to this convention as recommended by the committee in charge.

PREACHERS' AID SPECIAL.

Report of committee on investigation of statements concerning the Preachers' Aid Society.

We your committee to whom was referred the matter of investigating certain statements concerning the management of the Preachers' Aid Society, beg leave to submit the following report:

1st. We have examined all the papers submitted to us, also the report of the Board of Managers for the years 1902 to 1909 inclusive, and from all the facts we have been able to gather there appears to be no evidence of any misuse or misappropriation of the funds of the society.

2nd. However, your committee, for reasons which are apparent, could not get the treasurer's books for investigation and auditing. Moreover, this committee has not had the time during the session of the Conference examination of the affairs of the society. We have consulted with the treasurer of the society and the other officers who made the report and they advise us that Mr. C. M. Kimbrough wrote the report after a careful survey of all the society's affairs. If the Conference desires it may order an investigation, at its own expense, of all the affairs of the society by expert accountants and report may be brought in at the next session of the Conference. But this committee thinks that such action would be needless and recommend that in the whole matter no action be taken.

3rd. We commend the faithfulness of the business men of the Board of Managers of this society in the administration of this important trust and pledge them our undivided support.

PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

Your committee on Church literature and publishing interests respectfully report that:

1. We note with pleasure that our general book committee reports an increase in the business and profits of the book concern. And in consequence of this increase in business the dividends of the concern for this year are $—— of which our own conference has increased $25.59.

2. We are justly proud of our great publishing interests in the high standard and progressive character of its books and its Sunday School publications and of our own Church papers, The Advocate and Epworth Herald.

3. We are under deep convictions that each and every pastor of the North Indiana Conference should be a subscriber to the Western Christian Advocate, and that on each charge all the lay members do likewise.

4. We also note with much concern that all our Sunday Schools do not use our own publications and therefore resolve that we as pastors will take special care that every society is supplied with our Church literature.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

We your committee on social and moral questions, beg leave to submit the following resolutions:

First—That we believe that it is the duty of the Church not only to seek the individual regeneration of men, but also to bring in the Kingdom of God by applying the teachings of Jesus to social and industrial conditions. That to attain this end we speak upon social subjects, and that we urge upon our people and brotherhoods the practical consideration of the specific conditions that are found in our various communities.

Second—That we deplore the desecration of the Sabbath and urge our people to make it a holy day of rest and worship. That they carefully and prayerfully read God's word as found in Isaiah 58, 13-14. That we will do all in our power to have given to laboring men one day of rest in seven.

Third—That in all matters of dispute between capital and labor we earnestly beg of our people to remember the principles and duties of Christian brotherhood, and to settle all their difficulties in the light thereof, and that we ministers offer our services in any such plan of arbitration.

Fourth—That we heartily commend the work of the Methodist Federation for Social Service.

Fifth—That we recommend that all of our preachers and people practice tithing and that we condemn all questionable methods of raising money.

Sixth—That we commend the special advice in our discipline on the subject of amusements and urge our people that they intelligently and prayerfully study the needs of the young people in their homes, and seek to provide wholesome and proper amusements for them.

Seventh—That realizing as we do, the awful danger to the race, the nation and the home, from the results of licentiousness and wholesale divorce, we urge the press and the pulpit to cry out in no uncertain terms against these gigantic evils and furthermore, we call attention and earnestly ask our ministers to give earnest heed to paragraph sixty-seven of the Methodist Discipline, which reads as follows. No divorce, except for adultery, shall be regarded by the Church as lawful, and no minister shall solemnize marriage in any case where there is a divorced wife or husband living, but this rule shall not be applied to the innocent party, to a divorce for the cause of adultery, nor to the divorced parties seeking to be reunited in marriage.

Furthermore, we call for such a vigorous enforcement of this rule that no one will dare to violate its provisions.

THE REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

The Sunday School is the hope of the Church. Four-fifths of our membership is recruited from its ranks; 75,000 coming into the Church from that source last year.

During the last 40 years it has laid $12,500,000 for Missions and $1,673,000 for Christian Education on the altars of the Church.

Therefore we recommend, that in every Church a Sunday School be maintained through the year.

That our own publications be used exclusively.

That, the New Grade Lessons, the Study Course for Sunday School Workers and the Department Methods be incorporated in our schools.

That we observe Rally and Decision days in the interest of the board.

That each Sunday School be organized into Missionary and Temperance societies.

That, because of the great possibilities and promise of the New Forward Sunday School Movement in the Home and Foreign Fields, we urge that the full apportionment for this board be raised on every charge and promptly forwarded to its corresponding secretary, David G. Downey, 57 Washington street, Chicago, Ill.

TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION REPORT

We gratefully acknowledge the blessings of Almighty God in the battles of the forces of righteousness. We rejoice in the splendid victories of the past two years, which inspire strength for the final contest. We condemn the license policy. It is vicious in principle and contrary to enlightened government. The liquor traffic cannot be legalized without sin. We reaffirm our confidence in the Anti-Saloon League, and in the Women's Christian Temperance Union, as strong agencies for the overthrow of the liquor traffic.

We also call upon our people to assist all other good people in the organization of leagues in every county occupied by this Conference, for strict enforcement of the laws now on our statute books, and see that no violations shall escape full and just prosecution.

We believe that prohibition is a moral issue, therefore, we insist that our members shall assist to nominate and elect regardless of party affiliations only such legislators who will retain our existing laws and support state and national prohibition.

We call upon all our people to refrain from the use of tobacco, and believe in the enforcement of the anti-cigarette laws.

We declare in favor of the present interstate commerce bill now pending before our national congress, for the purpose of regulating the shipment of liquor into dry territory.

We again desire that the Committee on Program for our next Conference arrange for the Temperance Anniversary at one of the night sessions.

We recommend as officers of the Conference Temperance Society: President, F. P. Morris; Vice-president, J. W. Cain; Secretary, Herbert Boase; Treasurer, L. E. Knox.

We recommend for Trustees of the Anti-Saloon League, C. J. Everson and J. F. Radcliffe.

C. H. MURRAY, Chairman.

P. E. GREENWALT, Secretary.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

We have come at the close of another conference year to bring our annual report. The totals are encouraging, but not what it might be. It has been a year of disappointments and successes, of labor and reward. We wish to extend our appreciation to the loyal women of this Conference for their faith and devotion to this greatest of causes. In this, our Ruby Anniversary, we are embarrassed over the growth of our work in the foreign field. Our schools, orphanages, churches and hospitals are overcrowded, our Missionaries and native workers overworked, but with increased offerings, we can and must meet these conditions.

Forty years ago Bishop Simpson said to us: "And you will not only indoctrinate the mind of childhood with missionary zeal, but we shall find that these women will so stir the hearts of their husbands and sons that these who hold the purse strings will pour out as never before their hundreds and thousands on the altar of God." Behold the Laymen's Great Missionary Movement! Will the editor of the Methodist Year Book kindly accept our thanks for encouraging words.

Last year my efficient and loved predecessor, Mrs. Wade, reported a membership of 4,500 in our three departments. We now have 5,050. We have twenty-three new organizations, 688 subscribers to the "Friend," 706 to the "Junior Friend." We also have ten new life members, eight of these Little Light Bearers in parsonage homes and one born in Shanghai, China. With a membership in this Conference of over 63,000, have we reached our limit? The last year our society made a gain of twelve per cent. The net gain in the foreign field in ten years is over 80 per cent. "Whatsoever is commanded by the God of Heaven, let it be diligently done."

Respectfully submitted,

FLORENCE CLARK BINFORD,
Conference Secretary.

Special Work

The records of another year are made, and opportunities which were not embraced or which we failed to see, are gone, but we hope to be more prompt and willing to respond to the calls which will come with the new year.

The needs of the special field which we are now studying, "Latin Lands," are very numerous and should appeal to us in an especial manner, as some of them are at our very door.

We, as members of the North Indiana Conference, are now giving enough "Advance Movement" money to pay the support of one of our regular missionaries, and Miss Italia Garibaldi, of the Mission in Rome, Italy, has been assigned to our care. She is the grand-daughter of Guiseppe Garibaldi, one of Italy's noble and honored liberators.

Our list of special work includes ten regular missionaries, one worker among Zenana women, thirty-eight Bible Women, one Assistant Bible Woman and four in training, three hospital beds, besides medical work in Bareilly, three day schools, one hundred and one scholarships in our various schools, and furnishings for a room in the Lilavati Singh Memorial School of Lucknow, India.

Quite a number of our Auxiliaries are sending magazines to our missionaries, and we have also sent out a number of boxes of school supplies and Christmas remembrances.

We are hoping that more of the women of our great church may identify themselves with the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and we most earnestly pray that we may all be led to realize the importance of the salvation of the souls now groping their way in heathen darkness. Not all of us are called to go to the foreign field for active service, but we may all be active workers at home and aid by our money and our prayers to support the work and the workers—and thus help to obey the command to preach the gospel to every nation. Through the lines of special work we have opportunities to have a part in sending the gospel message even to the darkest and most remote corners of the earth. Why not GO or SEND?

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. B. CLINE,
Conference Sec'y Special Work.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Another year has gone and once more we come to you with greetings from the Woman's Home Missionary Society of North Indiana Conference.

We rejoice in the love of the Heavenly Father and offer unto him the praise and gratitude of our hearts for the blessings which have been bestowed upon us and for the privilege we have of helping to advance his kingdom, and for the degree of success which has crowned our efforts.

The past year has been one of the best in the history of the society, but although we have made a gain in our membership and also in our finances, we have not doubled our membership nor paid our part of the "Building Improvement Fund," which was asked of us. But we are still at work along these lines and hope to interest and enlist more of the women of Methodism in the work of Home Missions.

During the past year organizations have been effected at the following places: Auxiliaries at Cleveland and Galveston; Queen Esther Circles at Avondale, Muncie; Broadway, Logansport; Bunker Hill, Dublin, Eaton, Hartford City, First Church—Marion, Markle, Ninth Street—Noblesville, Park Place—Anderson, Peru, Simpson—Fort Wayne, Sharpsville, Shipshewana, Wakarusa, Warsaw and Wolcottville; Home Guards at New Paris, Pendleton, Portland, St. Paul, Elkhart and Wolcottville. Mothers' Jewels at Centerville, Lewisville, Marion (First Church), Normal City (Muncie), Warsaw and Wayne Street (Fort Wayne).

We have recorded at present a membership of 2,806 in the Auxiliaries, 794 Queen Esthers, 209 Home Guards and 777 Mothers' Jewels. Subscribers to Woman's Home Missions 878, and to Children's Home Missions 411.

At the Goshen District meeting the little twin daughters of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Wones were made Junior Life members and at the Conference meeting Wilbur, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Rowand, and the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schafer, a grand-daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Daniel and a great grand-daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Birch, were also added to the list of Junior Life members of the Society.

Our Supply Secretary reports a number of boxes and barrels sent out to our Homes and Schools and to the frontier ministers, with a cash value of $1,276. The Secretary of Literature is anxious to get our leaflets in the hands of more of the women, as with added knowledge will come increased interest and a desire to relieve the conditions in our several fields of labor. The Temperance Secretary is striving to awaken greater interest in the cause of temperance, and we all rejoice with her in the growing wave of temperance which is spreading over the country, and unite our prayers with hers that the curse of intemperance be banished from our land. The Young People's Secretary is striving to arouse our young people to active and efficient service. Mite Box Secretary is rewarded for her efforts by knowing that we are the banner Conference of the nation in amount of money raised from that source, and we all rejoice with her. Secretary of Systematic Beneficence insists that our women will be able to give more largely and with greater ease if they will adopt Tithing. The Manager of Training Schools is anxious to be in communication with any of our young women who are desirous of entering a school and fitting themselves for special service. Each district worker is doing what she can to add to our membership and increase the finances.

We extend our thanks to the District Superintendent, the Pastors and Epworth and Junior Leagues for their interest and support of our work during the past and bespeak their continued interest and support.

We enter upon the duties of another year with greater love for the work and an increased desire to see all lines of Home Missionary work advance, knowing that with the advancement our country is made better and that we are also helping in the extension of the Kingdom of Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. B. CLINE,

Conference Corres. Sec'y.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH

We, your committee, look with keen appreciation upon the faithful and efficient service which our sisters are rendering to the Church. We understand full well that all departments, both temporal and spiritual, are touched by their deft and helpful hands.

Many congregations point with pride to the splendid edifices in which they worship, to improvements which have been made, and to services which have been rendered, and candidly confess that they were made possible by the sacrifices of the splendid band of women known as "The Ladies' Aid Society."

The Conference with increasing joy points to the streams of light and helpfulness that flow out from the Home and the Foreign Missionary Societies.

No less do we rejoice in the "Deaconess" who in modest garb and unpretentious ways, goes about doing good, carrying the message of light and help to the poor, the sick and the sorrowing. To these elect women we pledge not only our sympathy and our admiration, but also, our encouragement and our help in every possible way that can be rendered.

Resolutions

BISHOP HOSS

Our thanks as an annual conference are due the Program Committee for bringing to our session Bishop E. E. Hoss, of our sister Methodist church.

His gracious personality, his genial wit and withal his masterly presentation of the great truths for which our church stands, as set forth in his lecture, will leave with us a wholesome and lasting impression.

In that coming day when the federations of Methodism will be merged into organic union, it will be a real pleasure to welcome Bishop Hoss as the president of a session of our Conference.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS

We record with great pleasure our appreciation of the painstaking efforts of the Rev. W. W. Martin, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Bluffton, and the members of his church and official board in the careful and complete arrangements for the entertainment of the members and visitors of the conference during this session. We note the excellent accommodations provided for the various boards and committees. It will be an abiding joy and comfort to remember the genial spirit of hospitality and good will of the membership of this great church. We also include a high appreciation of other pastors and churches who have by expression, presence and deed contributed to make this conference a marked success.

We especially desire to thank the banks for valuable service, and the press for their accurate reports, and the choir and organist, Mrs. W. W. Weissel, for her faithfulness, and for their splendid music and the excellent cantata and other musicians for their fine music.

The evangelistic services conducted by the Rev. A. B. Riker have been of great spiritual benefit to the conference and the city and all visitors. He is a man of great power, and fine presentation of the truth.

One of the chief features of the conference has been the leadership of song and the remarkable solos of Mr. Everett Naftzger and Miss Bessie Work. They manifest splendid leadership of the congregation, the possession of a fine spirit, and very effective solo work.

The presidency of Bishop Earl Cranston, LL. D., has been a joy to the Conference, which has enjoyed his high executive ability, beautiful spirit, sermons and addresses of great power. The expressions of his services have been very general.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' RESOLUTIONS

We, the District Superintendents of the North Indiana Conference, desire to express to Bishop Earl Cranston our sincere appreciation of his uniform patience, kindness and faithfulness in the work of the cabinet.

He was faithful to duty, and yet tenderly sympathetic toward every brother.

We earnestly pray that his useful life may long be spared to the Church and the Kingdom of Christ upon Earth.

Obituaries

MRS. L. A. WILLIAMS.

One of the regrets of this memoir is that we were not informed of the death of one of our conference widows that took place several years ago for it was but a few months ago that we learned of the death of the subject of this memoir.

Mrs. Lucy Amelia Williams, whose maiden name was Briggs, was born in Plymouth, Windsor County, Vermont, May 10, 1814. She had illustrious ancestors in the person of her father, Asa Briggs, Jr., and Asa Briggs, Sr., her grandfather. When she was 13 years of age she moved with her parents and family to what was then known as new West Kalamazoo County, Michigan. This change brought disappointment to her in the matter of her education for there were no schools there at that early time. A little later when the common schools were instituted in that section of the state, she availed herself of the opportunity and spent some years in the school room as a teacher. At the same time she attempted to make up for the lack of better opportunity by pursuing studies without the help of a teacher. She did considerable work in the study of Latin without the aid of a teacher.

In 1837, she was married to a Methodist preacher, Rev. Sanford Williams. Although she had been a member of the Congregational Church before her marriage, she at once gave to her husband all the help a faithful wife could give. But they were not privileged to spend many years together in the work of the ministry, for failing health soon compelled him to give up the work when they went to the home of his father, where he died in 1841, leaving two children to the charge of the young widow.

With her two children she returned to her relatives in Michigan, where her oldest child soon died. Here she again engaged in teaching for a short time. In 1854, she moved to Wisconsin, where there were better educational advantages, which she was ambitious to give her only son.

The lack of educational advantages in early life found some satisfaction in seeing her son graduate from the Lawrence University at Appleton, Wisconsin.

In 1871, she moved to Glenwood, Iowa, in order to be with her son. Here in a little home near the M. E. Church, she spent the remaining days of her life, loving her church to the end. With the passing of the years her physical powers weakened, but her mental powers remained unimpaired until the end. Her last illness, which was pneumonia, was so severe that she soon became unconscious, and did not regain it during the four days of the raging of the disease. "Though she gave no expression of her hope at the last, her life made words unnecessary, and all who knew her, felt that for her 'to die is gain.'"

Her funeral services were conducted by her faithful pastor, Rev. C. W. Bower. She was buried in the cemetery at Glenwood, Iowa. At the time of her death the son was living, but has since passed away. Three grandchildren survive at this time. John Williams, Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Mary Henderson, Bellingham, Wash., and Fred Williams, Seattle, Wash.

WILLIAM CARPENTER BUTTS,

Who was one of the younger members of our conference, was the first to answer the call to his coronation, this year. After an illness of six months, he was called home by his heavenly Father, on the 24th day of April, 1909, at the age of thirty years, eleven months, and twenty-one days. In October, 1908, he and his wife were called to the bedside of her mother, on account of her severe illness, where in a few days our brother was taken severely ill with endocarditis, from which he was never able to secure any relief. He never was able to return to his field of labor, and remained at the home of his wife's mother, Mrs. Clara Pilson in Sykesville, Md., until God took him home. Although these were months of intense physical suffering, yet his shattering of his life plans word of distrust in the guiding hand of Jehovah, nor murmur at the the activities of the pastorate, yet he was never heard to utter one word of the Kingdom of his Master, and had an intense desire for withstanding he was possessed with a high ambition to push the faith never wavered and he was always on the victory side. Not-

His religious life began at the age of 18 when he was converted, and which soon found expression in the larger activities of the church. He was well equipped for the work of the ministry, having graduated from Pennington Seminary and Drew Theological Seminary. He was a son of Mrs. Mary A. Butts, of Baltimore, Md., in which city he was born May 3, 1878. Soon after his conversion, he began to show more than usual interest in the welfare of the church and the church soon showed her approbation of his activities by calling him to do supply work in the Baltimore Conference. In 1899, he supplied Woodside charge, and in 1900, Hampstead for 6 months; 1900-1902, he was in school and during the last year supplied Montville charge in the Newark Conference. Coming to Indiana, he supplied Centerville in 1903. Joining the North Indiana Conference in 1904, he was returned to Centerville, and again the following year. The years 1906-7, he spent at Fifth Avenue, Goshen, and 1908 until October at Topeka, at which time he was called to the home of his mother-in-law, as above mentioned.

Brother Butts was a successful pastor and minister, in every charge. He was especially successful in winning the men of the charge. One of his District Superintendents said of him, "His clear mind, and his sound faith enabled him to preach like a prophet. I am sure that in all the duties of a husband, home maker, and companion, he must have been ideal. I shall miss him, I liked him. I hoped much from him."

He was married to Miss Emma Pilson, June 4, 1902, who with his aged mother, one brother, and one sister survive him. The funeral services were conducted from the home of Mrs. Pilson, on Monday afternoon, April 26, by Rev. Ambrose Burgess and Rev. Hersom, a college mate of Brother Butts. The remains were taken to Baltimore, where they were interred in Greenmount Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Dr. Norris, William Chipley, T. M. Anderson, R. H. Merceron, Harry R. DeVries and Mr. Nicodemus.

MRS. ELLA L. WADE.

"No sweeter, purer, truer soul ever lived." These were the words with which the husband greeted his sorrowing parishoners assembled in the lower room of the parsonage immediately after the wife's triumphant departure, May 11, 1909. And these words found response not only in the hearts of those who heard, but in all who knew her.

Ella Leora, daughter of Benjamin and Eliza A. Yarian, was born in Nappanee, Indiana, Feb. 16, 1878. Her mother died when she was but 13 years old, after which until marriage she chiefly made her home with her sister, Mrs. Daniel Zook. Blessed with godly parentage and the influence of a Christian home, when nine years of age she hearkened gladly to the call of God, was blessedly converted during revival effort and joined the United Brethren Church. Some years later she became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Nappanee, in which church building, Dec. 4, 1901, she was united in holy bonds of wedlock to Rev. Raymond J. Wade. A year and a half happily spent in this parsonage home was followed by three in Kendallville and a little more than three in First Church, Richmond.

As wife and mother she was unexcelled, and in a degree rarely witnessed she approached the true ideal of the preacher's wife. She was an ardent and devoted worker; ever an efficient helpmate and inspiration to her husband. A dominant characteristic was radiant cheerfulness. Dedicating herself in early girlhood to the service of her Master, with loyal devotion and full purpose of heart, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, she grew to be a beautiful Christian character. She was universally beloved. The gracious fruits of the Spirit adorned her daily life. The atmosphere of her home life was akin to the Home-land whither she has gone. Gentle, quiet, humble, retiring in disposition, she yet possessed strength of purpose for the right. Tireless in work yet she seemed altogether unconscious of the constant kindly ministries of her heart and hand. She never shrank from service that belonged to her and frequently went beyond her strength in assisting her husband in the work she so much loved. The work was all one to her whether of choir, Junior League, Epworth League, Sunday School, Ladies' Aid or Missionary Societies—she gave to each her utmost endeavor. The evening before she was stricken with that dread disease—pneumonia, she delightfully entertained at the parsonage the Young Peoples' Home Missionary Society of which she was the able president.

From Thursday until Tuesday she struggled bravely to overcome the disease for the sake of children, husband and further toil. But the combined efforts of medical science and the prayers of Christian people were alike unavailing. The parting moments were manifestations of wonderful spiritual power. When told that she would soon die she replied calmly, "It is all right, but I'm not going to die", she realized the truth of Phillips Brooks' utterance that death was "not the end of life, but an event in life," she saw through the gates of the celestial city into the paradise of God whither she was going. In death, as in life, her greeting was a smile and a kindly word. Expressing a desire to see her friends, many of whom were anxiously waiting in the rooms below, when they were admitted, with countenance aglow with victory, she greeted each by name and with words of tender welcome and farewell. She expressed solicitude for the moral and religious upbringing of the three children, Elizabeth aged 6, Elouise aged 4, and Paul Raymond aged 2—whom she committed to the care of the husband together with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Zook, of Nappanee, who have been singularly devoted and helpful. Rev. Henry Luring having led in prayer she called on him for a song and when others were choking and blinded with tears in clear voice she sang with him all the verses and chorus each time of "I'm going home to die no more." God honors his faithful servants. He sent a chariot of fire for his servant Elijah. He sent a chariot of song for this devoted saint. At her suggestion the assembled company in a downstairs room sang "Nearer My God to Thee," "Rock of Ages," and finally "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and with the concluding line of this beautiful old hymn she closed her eyes and sank to rest. She had died as she had lived in the spirit of God. Within a few months after her departure her husband had charge of the funeral service of a young lady who had been won to God by her triumphant death.

Funeral services were conducted at First Church, Richmond, Thursday, May 18. Rev. T. M. Guild, District Superintendent, preached the sermon from Jas. 4, 14, "For what is your life?" Rev. G. H. Hill spoke on "The Relation of the Preacher's Wife to the Church." Rev. H. R. Keates on behalf of the Richmond Ministerial Association which was present in a body. Rev. L. H. Bunyan for the local church, while Rev. F. W. Hixson, of Terre Haute—an intimate college friend of the pastor—and Rev. M. Mahin led in prayer. On the previous day the Ministers and Stewards of Richmond District held brief services at the house.

Further services were held in Nappanee, Friday, May 14, in charge of Rev. Somerville Light and the pastor, Rev. B. Earle Parker. Rev. J. C. Albright, of the United Brethren Church and others assisted. Besides the relations already mentioned, the father, brothers, sisters, many relatives and friends mourn the loss. Borne by six cousins the earthly remains were laid to rest at the close of a beautiful spring day in West Union Cemetery, Nappanee, Indiana.

"It is not death to fling
Aside the mold'ring dust
And rise on strong, exultant wing
To live among the just.

"Jesus, Thou Prince of Life,
Thy chosen cannot die;
Like Thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with Thee on high."

NELLIE HINES CATES.

Nellie, daughter of Hiram and Sallie Hines, was born near Arcadia, Indiana, July 13, 1875. From early childhood she revealed a religious nature. Reared in a Christian home, she grew up in an atmosphere of reverence for holy things. When thirteen years of age she experienced a definite conversion and united with the church in Noblesville, Indiana, which was her home. She was always a friend of the pastor and was ready to assist him in any way possible. She taught in the Sunday School and Junior League, and at the time of her marriage was Junior Superintendent of the Kokomo District.

She was married to Rev. Arthur Cates, June 3, 1902, and was the mother of two children, Frederick and Edwin. Frederick proceeded his mother to the better land, Nov. 9, 1907.

Mrs. Cates possessed the qualities of mind and heart which made her an ideal wife and mother. Her devotion to her family and home was always marked. Her interest in the work of the church was deep and constant and was a source of encouragement and inspiration to her husband in the work of the ministry. On account of her failing health, Brother Cates secured an appointment in the west and the family moved to Sheridan, Wyoming, in the fall of 1906. There for three years she continued the brave struggle against a fatal malady. On the morning of Sept. 14, 1909, she passed from the world of shadows and suffering into the land of perennial joy and endless day.

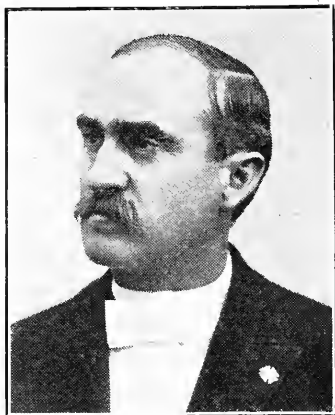

Her life was distinguished for its purity and sincerity, and her example was everywhere an object lesson of true piety and devotion. Like her Master she was not unmindful of the poor and needy. She visited the fatherless and widows in their affliction and kept herself unspotted from the world. Her faith was unwavering, her life was Christ-like and the end was peace. Though called from labor to reward while it was yet day she leaves behind a gracious influence for righteousness, and the sacred memory of a true and beautiful life.

Brief funeral services were held in the church at Sheridan, Wyoming, conducted by the Rev. W. D. Trout, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Gillespie, Rev. H. A. Toland. The body was brought to Noblesville, Indiana, where services were held at the home of her parents, conducted by Rev. L. A. Beeks, assisted by Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, Rev. E. J. Magor, Rev. Chalmer Harrold, and her uncle, Rev. A. G. Neal. Interment in the beautiful Crownland Cemetery at Noblesville. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Madison Swadener, from Grace Church on Monday, Nov. 29, at 2 o'clock P. M., after which the body was buried in the beautiful Crown Point Cemetery, Kokomo.

JACOMIAH HUTCHINGS JACKSON,

Eldest of the six children of John F. and Jane Jackson, was born in Delaware county, Indiana on the 21st day of October, 1850. While mowing his lawn on the morning of Oct. 2, 1909, he was suddenly stricken with heart failure and fell to the grass. Sister Jackson's attention was attracted that way, hastened to him, ran for water, but he never regained consciousness, and died in a few minutes at the age of 58 years, 11 months, and 11 days.

He was educated in the public schools of his county and there, after attending the Ridgeville Normal school, enjoyed a very successful career of school teaching for several years. Later he entered DePauw University to finish his education and prepare himself for the ministry, yielding to the call of the Spirit, against which he had struggled for months. He had been converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when only a boy.

In the spring of 1878, he was received on trial in the North Indiana Conference, and served with success the following pastoral charges: Anderson circuit, Osceola, Middlebury, Bunker Hill, Pendleton, Bluffton, LaGrange, Elkhart, Peru and Grace church, Kokomo. It was while pastor of Grace church in the spring of 1900 that his health gave way and he was compelled to retire to his farm north of this city.

On Dec. 9, 1879, shortly after entering the active ranks of the ministry, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Tappan at Anderson, Ind. Together they labored earnestly, sharing the experiences incident to the Methodist ministry. To them were born three children, all of which survive. They are Merrill Emmitt Jackson, and Mrs. Mand Myers, of Kokomo, and Earl Claude Jackson, of Elkhart. Others of the near relatives who survive are his aged mother, two brothers, John Jackson, of Muncie, and Oliver Morton Jackson, of Comersville, Ind., and two sisters, Mrs. Maggie Odel and Mrs. Alice Hirons, both of Muncie.

Rev. J. H. Jackson was one of the leading ministers of his Conference, and did much to further the interests of his church and extend the kingdom of our Lord. He was a strong preacher, a splendid organizer, but perhaps excelled as a pastor. The sincerity of his efforts greatly impressed his people. During his five years pastorate at Elkhart, he received into the church, 699 members and when a brother suggested that perhaps an appeal for someone to make the 700th, might be successful, he said "No one ought to be more deeply impressed in taking such a stand than merely to be the 700th addition to the church."

It was with great reluctance that Brother Jackson retired from the active ranks, yet the condition of his health made it necessary, a condition which brought about his death. During his years of retirement, however, he took a deep and constant interest in all the work of the church. He and Sister Jackson gave the first home to the Superannuated preachers in the Conference purchasing a cozy cottage in Alexandria in which live Brother and Sister Paterson. The giving of this home inaugurated a movement which resulted in the purchase of several others.

On the morning of his death he prayed in his family devotions with special unction for the church; for his pastor; that great victory might attend the services in connection with the laying of the corner stone of the Main Street Church. He seemed to be specially led out in prayers; so much so as to deeply impress his wife. Then cheerily he set out upon the duties of the day, the end coming suddenly, when at 10 o'clock the Lord called him home.

He was a splendid Christian, minister and gentleman; exceedingly fond of his wife and children; always anxious for their highest welfare; clean of life; noble in bearing; a true friend to everybody. He loved the Lord, was faithful to the end and has entered into his reward.

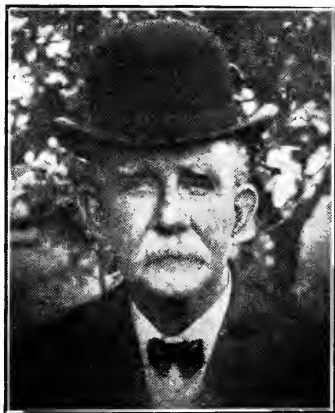

The funeral services were conducted from Grace church, Kokomo, Oct. 6, and were in charge of Rev. C. C. Cissell, District Superintendent of Logansport District, who was assisted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. J. H. Sprague, Revs. C. U. Wade, B. S. Hollopeter, and Madison Swadener. The services were attended by nearly fifty ministers of the conference. His body was buried in the Crown Point Cemetery, Kokomo.

JAMES H. SPRAGUE.

JOSEPH H. SLACK

Was born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 21, 1850. While still a young man she went to New York City, where he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

He soon felt called to the work of the ministry. The church also heard the call and opened the way, by aiding him pay his expenses while in school preparing for this work. After completing the course in Pennington Seminary, he entered the ministry, joining the Philadelphia Conference in 1875, and was assigned to Yardleyville charge. He continued in this conference until 1880, when the western conferences were calling so strongly for men that he and several others answered the call and he was transferred to the North Indiana Conference and stationed at Sheldon, and returned there next year. Since then he served the following charges in our conference: '82, New Haven; '83-5, Leo; '86, Huntertown; '87, White-water; '88-90, Trenton; '91-2, Charlottesville; '93-4, Fortville; '95, McCordsville; '96, Gaston; '97-8, Mill Grove; '99-01, he was on the Supernumerary list. Since 1902, he has been on the Superannuated list on account of failing health.

Brother Slack was of a kind and loving disposition and loved spiritual things. He enjoyed the work of the ministry, and sought to do what he could to advance the Kingdom of His Christ. He was especially a lover of music and for some years was a member of one of the District Quartets.

He was married to Miss Naomi Pennoyer, of New York City, May 2, 1876, who together with the daughter, Mrs. Joseph Mercer, survives him. This marriage was blessed with three children, two sons and one daughter, one son dying while he was serving the Sheldon charge, at the age of 17 months. Harry died June 25, at the age of 25, just 5 months before his father.

For several months he has been in a precarious condition, and death was not unexpected. The immediate cause of his death was organic heart trouble, with other complications. Death took place about noon, Friday, Nov. 26, 1909, at his home in Kokomo, Indiana, at the age of 59 years, 8 months and 5 days.

WILLIAM J. VIGUS, D. D.,

Was born in Virgina, July 25, 1836, and passed to his heavenly home from Wabash, Indiana, Feb. 6, 1910, aged 73 years, 6 months, and 11 days. He was united in marriage with Miss Maria Barnes, daughter of Rev. H. N. Barnes, Aug. 30, 1864. This union was a most happy one, and had much to do with the successful and happy life lived by our brother. Four children were born to them. Three of whom survive.

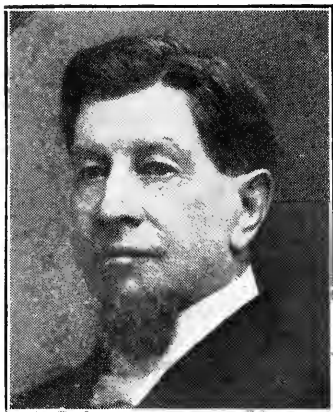

He was converted early in life and very early gave himself to the Ministry, joining the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Spring of 1860 at Mishawaka. He was to have preached the Semi-centennial Sermon at this session of his Conference and he looked forward to this occasion with pleasurable anticipations.

Dr. Vigus served the following charges in his Conference, Mexico, Logansport, Broadway, Centerville, Indianapolis, Trinity, Richmond, Peal Street, Kendallville, Peru, Wabash, Muncie, Union City, Anderson, Warsaw District, and again at Muncie, then for ten years, agent for the American Bible Society for Indiana, and closing his active ministry with six years at Middle Street, Wabash.

At many of these charges he had remarkable revivals in which hundreds were converted and joined the church. His ministry was always fruitful of good results for the churches he served.

He served the Winona Assembly as Field Agent during the last few years of his life. Brother Vigus was a good preacher, but he won his greatest victories in the ministry as a pastor. Here he had few equals. He took a deep and tender interest in all his people and his untarnished goodness won their hearts to him and to his Christ. He carried into the outer world the beautiful atmosphere of his home life and by kindly words, always spoken he carried sunshine everywhere he went. His long and useful career in the ministry gave him a large circle of friends that he cherished most tenderly.

He served in both the Civil and Spanish American wars. In the latter as Chaplain of the 160th Regiment of Indiana Volunteer Infantry.

His body was buried from First Church, Wabash, Wednesday, Feb. 9, 1910. His funeral was in charge of Rev. D. H. Guild, his pastor, who was assisted by the brethren of the North Indiana Conference, 39 of whom were present. The people of Wabash showed their great love for him by filling this great church to overflowing and by every attention that could be given the sorrowing family. His body was laid to rest in Falls Cemetery, Wabash.

B. S. HOLLOPETER.

SARAH M. JOHNSTON

Passed away Monday, in the early hours of the day on Feb. 7, 1910, at the age of 79 years, 5 months, and 21 days. Sister Johnson whose maiden name was McCreary, was born in Elizabethtown, N. J., August 16, 1830, and came with her parents to Ohio in 1838, and was married to Dr. J. H. Long at Mt. Union, Ohio, May 10, 1849. This union was blessed by the birth of three children, two sons and one daughter. The daughter died about eight years ago.

In 1855 they came to New Paris, Ind., where they lived about one year, when they came to Kosciusko county, and settled on a farm three miles northwest of North Webster, and remained there a short time and then moved to Leesburg. In 1861, her husband enlisted in the army as a surgeon and continued a faithful soldier till the close of the war when he returned home with greatly impaired health and died at the age of 52 years.

On March 2, 1881, she was united in marriage to Rev. James Johnston, who was an honored member of the North Indiana Conference, who was at that time serving as pastor the Wawaka charge. It was not her privilege to long enjoy the victories of the active pastorate. On account of ill health her husband found it necessary to ask the Conference for a Superannuated relation at the session in 1883. This request being granted he located in Pierceton where they lived until his death in July 30, 1897.

Sister Johnston's religious life began in early womanhood, when she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. She continued a faithful attendant upon its services as long as her health permitted. In July, 1907, she was stricken with paralysis, and was taken to the home of her son, J. F. Long and family, where she received the tender care of loving hearts until God called her home.

The funeral services were conducted at the late home on Wednesday, Feb. 9, by her pastor, Rev. W. R. Wones, after which her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Leesburg, Ind.

MRS. CATHARINE A. LOWERY.*

Was born in Patterson, New Jersey, March 4, 1830, and died at her home, one-half mile west of Rogers, Ark., at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, February 19, 1910. She was 79 years, 11 months, and 15 days old. In thirteen more days she would have been 80 years old. She had been very poorly for some months and especially for the past three weeks. She had for the last two or three days, however, been feeling some better and was able to sit up and by some assistance walk about some. On Friday morning she had been dressed by her daughters and, after the morning meal, was seated comfortably in her rocking chair in her room while Mrs. Ellis and Miss Ora were about the affairs of the home when it was discovered that her clothes were all aflame. She had evidently gotten up for some purpose and unconsciously had allowed her clothes to get against a heater stove which was in her room from which they became ignited; and by the time assistance could be given the flames had gone above her head and being badly burned and inhaling the flames, death was the inevitable result. Medical aid was at once summoned and tender hands and medical skill did all that could be done but the only thing available was to relieve the suffering until she could pass into the better life beyond.

Sister Lowery's maiden name was Williamson. She was married to Rev. John Wesley Lowery at Rockford, North Carolina, October 15, 1851; and they lived happily together for more than fifty years when death called her husband home, July 10, 1902. Since that time Mother Lowery has been very lonely and went rapidly down in health, although her two daughters supplied as nearly as possible her every desire. But she missed him who had stood with her in all the problems of life for half a century. She was the mother of six children, four of whom died in infancy, and two, Mrs. Kate Ellis and Miss Ora Lowery, survive the mother and mourn her departure. She leaves also one grandson, Roy Ellis, and one great grandson, Edmond Lowery.

Mother Lowery was indeed a mother in Israel. She was cultured and had the highest ideals of life with its responsibilities.

Appointment Record

The following Record is a continuation of that in the Monson Manual and is corrected to April 1, 1910, including the changes made during the year as reported by the district superintendents to the secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations—Loc, Located; Miss, Missionary; S, in School; Sn, Superannuated; Sy, Supernumerary; Sup, Supply.

SECRETARY.

EXPLANATORY—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record, it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST year of appointment. 02-6 means five years of service on that charge.

THE

Indiana Business College

Is putting forth a special effort to increase its enrollment. While this school has a large attendance, still it does not have enough graduates to supply the places it has at its disposal. For this reason we are anxious to get in touch with every young person in the state who wishes to attend business college and are going to ask you to aid us. We have a PENCIL HOLDER that you attach to the pocket and holds securely a pencil or fountain pen. If you will fill in the coupons mail to us with a two cent stamp, we will send you one of these by return mail. The greatest recompense in aiding us comes from getting your friends into a good school and knowing that they will be treated right. Our employment department is not a myth or a delusion, but is a real, live, active, result-producing department.

Place an X in the square opposite the name of the place where you prefer to attend.

THE INDIANA BUSINESS COLLEGE OF INDIANAPOLIS IS THE

Central Business College

HOLIDAY BUILDING.

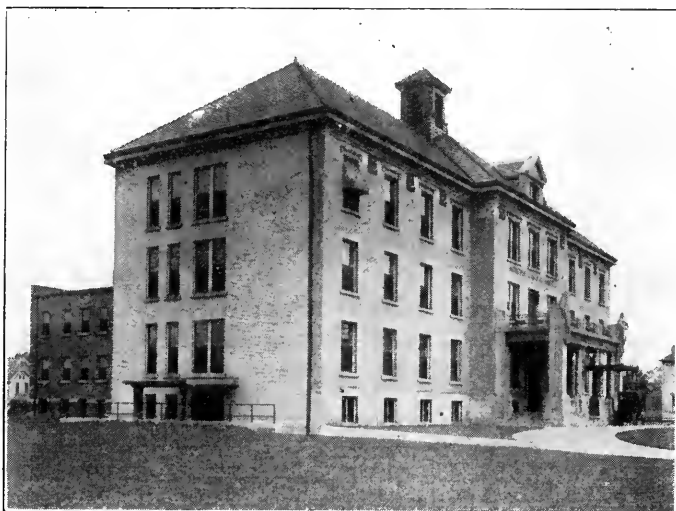

OPPOSITE THE NEW CITY HALL

The Methodist Episcopal Hospital

AND

Deaconess Home of the State of Indiana

Indianapolis, Indiana

A modern fireproof hospital of the best type; in the medical center of the state. A hundred applicants a month turned away for the lack of room, show the necessity for enlargement. Hospitals engaged in charitable work are not money making enterprises. Private patients pay for themselves but do not pay for others. We must have support for the development of our charity work. The benefit is state wide; the support must be likewise. A great campaign is on for a new building. The children are rallying in the Sunday Schools to the building of the children's ward in the new building. Your name cannot be better perpetuated than in connection with this charitable and evangelical work.

The work of the training school for Nurses has received the warmest commendation from those who have had the opportunity of judging. The operating rooms and equipment are of the latest approved standard. The equipment for the comfort and convenience of patients comprises the latest advances in hospital furnishings and construction.

It is your Hospital. Its benefit is state wide.

WINONA ASSEMBLY AND SCHOOLS, SEASON 1910.

Plans are about completed for the Assembly and Bible Conference program. The management of the Assembly program considers itself unusually fortunate in securing the lecturers, readers, entertainers, etc., for the coming season

The Bible School, under Dr. Palmer, continues six weeks from July 4th to August 12th; the International Sunday School Association has recently voted to hold the International Sunday School Institute here, August 7th to 12th; and the Fourth District of the International Sunday School Association, under E. W. Halpenny, Dean, begins August 7th and ends August 19th. The Bible Conference dates, Dr S. C. Dickey, Director, are August 21st to 28th inclusive, with post conferences August 30th and 31st. Dr. G. Campbell Morgan and Dr. Monro Gibson of London have definitely agreed to be present and speak. The list of American speakers includes leading ministers of many denominations.

DANGER

Of death is not contemplated by the healthy man. Nevertheless it is present and the mortality tables show that the number dying at all ages is very regular. You can not be sure that you may not be one of those who will die this year. The time to insure your life is now. For insurance at lowest cost apply to

The Presbyterian Ministers' Fund For Life Insurance

Its Policies are the most liberal in the world and its premiums are the lowest in the world.

It is now insuring the ministers of all Protestant Evangelical Churches.

Ministers are a preferred class of risks; their mortality is the lowest. The expense of management of the Fund are also the lowest possible consistent with efficiency, and therefor the gains from these two sources will result in reducing the premium cost of its insurance to the very minimum—at least 20 per cent. below that of any other insuring company.

It writes all forms of Policies, including Life, Endowment and Annuity Policies.

If you will send us your date of birth, statements of different policies will be mailed you for investigation. Address

We are proud of this beautiful set of books

—“I congratulate you on the fine bit of work coming from your press in the charming volumes of ‘Christian Festivals.’ From the first touch of the authors to the final stroke of the publishers they are a brilliant success.”

—Bishop John H. Vincent.

The Layman

Stimulating, inspiring, comfortable reading for the quiet hour in the home.

The Pastor

Every pastor should make the most of Christmas, Thanksgiving, Passion Week, and Easter, and these are thoroughly treated in this set.

Thanksgiving Sermons

Bishop Edwin H. Hughes comes forward in this set with his first exhaustive and attractive style. Gratitude is such a desirable quality of the soul that any one with this grace scantily developed must be impoverished, and every one with a wide open mind and appreciative heart must be greatly helped by the perusal of this book.

Christmas Sermons

Dr. Francis J. McConnell gives the most exhaustive and wholesome reason for the proper observance of the anniversary of our Lord's Birth. Under his skillful touch Christmas carols spontaneously arise to the lips of every devout Christian.

Passion Week Sermons

Dr. George P. Eckman takes us through that Via Dolorosa, Passion Week, and we go again along this lonely road with our Lord and bow with Him in solemn prayer in the Garden and go with Him again before Annas and Caiaphas and stand sharing his shame as he stands before Pilate.

Easter Reflections

“But second to none of these valuable productions is the one by Dr. Claudius B. Spencer, on Easter. This book is written in the most attractive and vivid style of its author, and is free from all the vagaries that are so common to the modern writer on the Resurrection.”—Pacific Chris. Advocate.

These volumes should be in the library of every Methodist home. Price, per set, boxed, $3; carriage additional; single volume, $1; postage, 10c.

Illinois Woman's College

JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS

Hundreds of parents and young women are looking for a college that meets the following requirements:

First—The instruction should be thorough.

Second—The equipment should be generous.

Third—The health of the student should be carefully considered.

Fourth—All the surroundings and associations should be helpful and pleasant.

Fifth—The Christian influence should be positive and attractive.

Sixth—The charges should be reasonable.

They will find every requirement fully met at the Illinois Woman's College

The College Offers the Following Courses:

1—Regular college courses, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

2—A seminary course shorter than the college course with free choice of studies.

3—College preparatory courses, preparing for entrance to any college in the country.

4—Special courses in Music, Art, Expression and Domestic Science.

Why Should any Indiana young woman go East to a Woman's College?

"If the unusual advantages offered by the Woman's College were generally known and realized, the College would not be able to take care of half the applications."

"Forsake thee not when thou art old,
We hear the call; the churches wake;
The heart that won us to the fold
Our grateful love shall ne'er forsake."

The Christian Advocate says of this Poem

"Superannuated preachers will be touched by these lines, and at the same time will be strengthened by the reflection that the gospel, reason and common Philanthropy are all enlisted in their support"

Secure the NEW PROGRAM containing FANNY CROSBY'S NEW POEM, and NEW MUSIC by KIRKPATRICK, GABNEL HARRIS, HEWITT and others, and take a liberal, benevolent collection for the Connectional Fund and remit to the board.

A LITTLE TALK

From the Publishing Agents

THE MINUTES of your Conference are always important, being, as they are, the continuous history of your Conference life and work. These Minutes represent the crystallizing of the activities of your Conference for one year. These activities are built around certain principles, one of which is loyalty to your denominational life and work.

The Methodist machine, by which Methodist work is done, is in many respects the most remarkable thing of its kind in the world. One of its greatest arms of power is the Methodist Book Concern. It lives to serve the Church. It publishes the best books, and the widest variety of books for all the different classes which make up your home. There is no equal to this Publishing House in this country. It has a system of weekly Advocates covering the country. One of them serves your particular part of the country. It is the best medium of communication between you and the Church at large; it has the most inspiring news of the Kingdom, and the best methods are outlined for the bringing of the Kingdom. You ought to have the Advocate in your home. The cost is nothing compared with its value. The Book Concern publishes the finest, completest, strongest system of Sunday-school literature to be found in the world, and it is constantly being improved. The Publishing Agents will be glad to send samples liberally to any school inquiring; samples of Advocates without cost, either to preachers or laymen; catalogues of books and other publications always free.

There is another reason: the profits from these sales do not go into any man's private purse, they are gladly turned over each year to the deserving veterans of the Church. In twenty-five years these payments to needy superannuates and other claimants have amounted to millions of dollars. It is the most splendid thought to-day in the business world—crystallizing the annual profits into comforts for the deserving.

Consider first your duty, then consider your opportunity, and then consider your privilege, and try and get some comfort out of patronizing the Book Concern for this coming year because you shall give it more patronage. Always write to and order from your nearest Depository.

Respectfully,

Jennings & Graham
